MANY KILLED IN EXPLOSION OF FIREWORKS

Others Meet Death by Jumping From Windows of Burning Factory

BODIES ARE FOUND JAMMED IN EXIT

MANILA, March 16 (P).—A new fire hazard, punctuated by sharp explosions, hindered rescuers attempting to recover additional bodies in a Chinese fireworks factory catastrophe that already has claimed the lives of twenty-one women.

Sixteen workers are in hospitals suffering from injuries. The condition of four is critical, authorities said.

More than 100 women were working in the plant yesterday when an unexplained powder explosion shattered part of the plant and started a fire which got quickly out of control.

It was estimated between twenty and fifty of the factory workers still were unaccounted for.

Many who survived the explosion drowned when they jumped from windows into a swamp in which the plant was located near Passay, Manila suburb.

Flames raged through the destroyed building before firemen could be summoned after the blast, which shook the surrounding area over a radius of two miles. The explosion's cause was undetermined.

The plant employed many Filipinos whose bodies were found jammed in the lone doorway through which those who escaped the blast sought to flee from the flames.

Authorities said the swamp location of the factory undoubtedly saved further devastation, since no other buildings or homes were situated nearby.

C.N.R. INCOME SHOWS GAINS

Increase in Operating Revenues Brings Reduction in System's Deficit

OTTAWA, March 15 (P).—Increase of more than $13,425,000 in operating revenues of the Canadian National Railways was shown in the annual report for 1936 tabled in the House of Commons today by Transport Minister C. D. Howe.

After noting operating revenues in 1936 had mounted to $186,610,489 from $173,184,501 in 1935, the report, submitted to Mr. Howe by President S. J. Mungerford, stated: "These figures would indicate that the severity of the depression is gradually easing."

DEFICIT REDUCED
Operating expenses were $171,477,690, leaving a net revenue of $15,132,799. After providing for bond interest of $49,184,622 and taxes, rentals and other cash requirements of $8,723,588, the cash deficit was $43,303,393 compared with $47,421,464 in the previous year.

Mr. Howe also tabled the annual report of Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships showing a surplus after paying bond interest, for the first time since the company was formed.

Accounts of the steamship company set out gross operating revenues of $4,822,582 and operating expenses of $3,765,194. Income surplus was $1,057,388 after bond interest. In 1935 there was a cash deficit of $289,960.

The Canadian National Railways system had a net operating revenue of its hotels of $180,017 last year as compared with $101,770 the year before.

Good Roads and Hotels Are Need

TORONTO, March 15 (P).—D. Leo Dolan, director of the Canadian Travel Bureau, said in an address here today Canada should have $750,000,000 worth of tourist trade annually. To reach this figure, he said, Canada needed modernized highways and hotels which provide kindness, courtesy, good food and clean beds.

Highway Paved With Gold

We're not saying that the above road is actually 18-carat, but the ore of which it is built assays $7 to the ton. The road, built in 1926, connects Julian and Ramona, near San Diego, Calif., a distance of eleven miles. Material for its construction was taken from a quarry now operated by Partners Fred Koele and Orval Hammer, who are shown seeking gold-bearing quartz on the quarry dump.

Big Reduction In Legislature Seats Promised

Dr. Frank Patterson, Conservative Leader, Comes Out Definitely for Fewer Members and Appointment of Road Commission—Would Stop Costly Experiments of Theorists

KAMLOOPS, March 15 (P).—Dr. Frank Patterson, speaking as leader of the Conservative party in British Columbia at a nominating convention here today, said a bill to reduce the membership of the Provincial Legislature "will be passed at the first session of the Legislature when the Conservative party is returned to power."

STRIKERS TOLD TO QUIT PLANT

Court Orders Chrysler Workers to Leave Property by Wednesday Morning

DETROIT, March 15 (P).—Five thousand sitdown strikers occupying Chrysler Corporation automobile plants for the eighth day confronted a decision tonight on whether they would obey a court injunction ordering them to vacate the property.

Circuit Judge Allen Campbell, acting on petition of the Chrysler Corporation against the strikers and officials of the United Automobile Workers of America and the Committee for Industrial Organization, ordered the men to evacuate the plants by 9 a.m. Wednesday and fined a penalty of $10,000,000 to be levied on their "land, goods and chattels" for failure to comply.

DEMANDING RECOGNITION

Buildings were occupied a week ago to enforce demands for recognition of the U.A.W. as sole collective bargaining agency for the corporation's 67,000 employees.

The strike and its effect have left 60,000 Chrysler workers, and 19,400 employees of the Briggs Manufacturing Co., body producers, idle. Other automotive strikes in progress have affected more than 10,000 employees of the Hudson Motor Car Co. here, some 2,200 Reo Motor Car Co. workers at Lansing, Mich., and several hundred Bohn Aluminum employees in Detroit.

CADBORO BAY BULL WINS AT KAMLOOPS

KAMLOOPS, March 15 (P).—"Royal Flush," entered by James Turner of Cadboro Bay, today was named grand champion Shorthorn bull at the British Columbia Fair Stock Show and Bull Sale. "Bo-cald," owned by R. N. Clarke of the N. C. Ranch, Vernon, took first in the Herefords. The Turner animal was also named best British Columbia-bred Shorthorn. Charles Turner, of Westwood, took best British Columbia-bred Hereford with "Sunnybrook Prince."

Start of World Flight Delayed By Bad Weather

OAKLAND, Calif., March 15 (P).—Stormy weather between here and Honolulu caused a second postponement today in the start of Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam's projected 27,000-mile world-circling flight. The aviator, who will be accompanied by three male aviation experts as far as Honolulu, hoped to get away tomorrow, but deferred any definite plans pending a check of weather conditions then.

QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA ON SICK LIST

Suffers From Serious But Not Dangerous Complications After Grippe

TAKEN ILL WHILE ATTENDING OPERA

BUCHAREST, March 15 (P).—Queen Marie of Rumania tonight was officially reported suffering from complications following an attack of grippe.

An announcement by physicians to "The Queen Mother of the Balkans" said "slight intestinal and stomach bleeding developed" after the grippe attack.

ON STRICT DIET
The statement said the Queen Mother was being kept on a strict diet and obliged to "remain perfectly quiet." It made no mention of foreign reports she had been poisoned, which evoked prompt and emphatic official denial.

The three doctors signing the official bulletin reported her temperature was about normal and her heart action satisfactory.

HUNDREDS MAY HAVE PERISHED

Fifty Japanese and Australian Pearling Vessels Feared Lost in Storm

TOKIO, March 15 (P).—A recent storm in Australian waters, where thirty Japanese and twenty Australian pearling vessels were fishing, was believed tonight to have swamped and sunk the fleet with their crews totaling 450 fishermen.

The Japanese Consul-General at Sydney, New South Wales, cabled the Japanese Foreign Office here today that the fishermen, pearling off Goulburn Island, 240 miles east of Darwin, Australia, had not been heard from since March 10.

The Japanese vessels contained 270 Japanese and the Australian boats had crews totaling 180 members. All shipping off the islands has been warned to be on the lookout for traces of the vessels, and plans are being made to search adjacent waters.

Mayor of New York Denounces Hitler Before Big Gathering

NEW YORK, March 15 (P).—Before screaming thousands at an anti-Nazi meeting, Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, who recently precipitated an international exchange by calling Adolf Hitler "a brown-shirted fanatic," tonight reiterated his denunciation of the German Reich leader.

LaGuardia appeared in the great hall of Madison Square Garden late in the proceedings just as General Hugh S. Johnson, former N.R.A. administrator, was well started upon a vitriolic attack on Hitler.

ROARS OF APPROVAL
The Mayor, standing with out-thrust jaw before the microphone, called out amid a great, almost continuous roar from the Garden's twenty-odd thousand seats:

"This protest of mine the other day was no novelty," he said, adding that he had said similar things about Hitler often before. And I expect to continue to say the same thing and I hope necessary (for saying it) will be but a short time."

Mongols Setting Up New State in Northern China

Reports to Peiping Say Vast Area in Chahar Renamed "Mongokuo"

JAPANESE ADVISORS ATTACHED TO REGIME

PEIPING, China, March 16 (P).—Unconfirmed reports from the North reached here today that a new nation "similar to Manchukuo" had been carved out of Chinese territory and had proclaimed its independence.

Reports from missionaries stationed in the vast area to the north of Kalgan declared the Mongol hordes of Northern China had christened the new state in Northern Chahar Province "Mongokuo."

The territory embraced by Mongokuo, according to these unverified reports, was bounded on the west by Suiyuan Province, on the north by Outer Mongolia, on the east by

CABINET TO FACE ISSUE

No Answers Ready Yet, States Premier Pattullo; Will Visit North

The British Columbia Government may settle major questions of policy at two Cabinet meetings this week. Premier Pattullo hinted yesterday on his return from an extended visit in Eastern Canada. Asked as to the prospect of a general Provincial election, the Premier said he would require to consult his Cabinet before any major decision is reached.

Amplifying what he said in Vancouver about the intention of the administration to set up a Department of Trade and Commerce at the next session, if there is a next session, the Premier said the new portfolio would be a separate one and in charge of a minister who might or might not be an addition to the present eight-man Cabinet.

GOING NORTH
The Cabinet will meet today with two ministers absent, and again on Friday, as at present arranged. Premier Pattullo will leave the city next Sunday for Vancouver, where on Monday he will sail for Prince Rupert, to visit his own constituency.

The Premier put aside any reference to Cabinet reorganization and declined to discuss rumors that Attorney-General Sloan may shortly be elevated to the Appeal Court bench.

He described his Eastern tour as successful, and said Mrs. Pattullo had remained in Montreal for the present. The Premier looked well, encountering mild weather in the East, where he touched at Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal.

No Money Available For B.C. Hospitals Jubilee Is Informing

Victoria Institution Makes Application to Province for Aid With $300,000 Wing to Enlarge Accommodation—No Assistance at Present

WHATEVER may be the requirements under health insurance, the Province has no money with which to assist the construction of additional hospital accommodation at this time, a committee of the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital board was told flatly yesterday by the British Columbia Treasury.

A committee composed of Hugh Allan, president, F. E. Winalow and Dr. T. W. Walker called on Hon. John Hart, to renew application on behalf of the Jubilee for Provincial assistance with the construction of needed accommodation, estimated to cost $300,000.

NO MONEY AVAILABLE
"We were assured of every sympathy, but told that there was no money available at all for the purpose," that the $300,000 loan recently effected by the Province was for road purposes, and that we had better defer the question until after the Dominion-Provincial commission has sat and looked into the question of Federal and Provincial obligations, whenever that may be," Mr. Allan said.

In making application for assistance with the needed accommodation, the committee cited as precedent recent opening by the Government of a new T.B. wing at Vancouver, now turned over to the Vancouver General Hospital for operation, after completion at a cost of approximately $400,000, with furnishings. Serious lack of space at the Victoria institution was stressed.

Ready for World Flight

Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam and Capt. Harry Manning, her navigator, are shown at Los Angeles as they checked over navigation instruments in her plane in preparation for her around-the-world flight, to begin when weather alters. Captain Manning will accompany Mrs. Putnam across the Pacific to Australia. She will complete the flight from Darwin, Australia, unaccompanied.

Council Demands Arbitration Upon Board Estimates

Formal Notice Sent Trustees When Aldermen Fail to Pass Annual Budget of $405,635.75 for Victoria Schools—Special Meeting With Finance Committee Wednesday Morning

FORMAL notice demanding a board of arbitration to deal with Victoria School Board net estimates of $415,635.75 was dispatched by the City Council last evening following lengthy debate. The letter set forth that machinery of arbitration would be held in abeyance until the board met the finance committee at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning to amicably discuss reductions aimed to assist attempts of the council to lower the mill rate.

Extraordinary estimates of $2,280 were referred to the finance committee for investigation. Gross ordinary estimates presented to the council for approval totaled $516,266.75, with estimated revenue of $100,630.

Alderman John A. Worthington moved estimates be sent back to the school board for reconsideration. He believed it was time taxpayers received more assistance in meeting their burdens. Drastic cuts had been made in other city services, so he could not see why the school board should not pare down. High taxes prevented repairs to many homes, and as far as he was concerned, the council was going to cut the mill rate.

Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter moved, and Alderman W. T. Straith seconded, a resolution that the estimates be referred to the estimates committee. It was not voted upon. It was pointed out by H. S. Pringle, city solicitor, that the council

Ship Towed From Reef At Bermuda

HAMILTON, Bermuda, March 15 (P).—The Ocean Dominion Line freighter Iristo ran aground on the northern reef this afternoon during a blinding drizzle but was towed off four hours later and tonight was being taken by tugs to St. George, the northeastern island of Bermuda. No estimate of damage was available. A survey was announced for tomorrow.

PROVIDES FOR AIR FORCE OF TRIPLED SIZE

House of Commons Learns Aviation's Place in Re-armament Plan

ATLANTIC FLYING SERVICE THIS YEAR

LONDON, March 15 (P).—Plans for a strengthened Royal Air Force, virtually trebled in size, armed with the newest weapons and supplied with vast reserve materials, were disclosed to the House of Commons today by Sir Philip Sassoon, Under-Secretary for War.

Trans-Atlantic flying, as a civil supplement to the Air Ministry's programme, he said, was expected to be ready for experimental service before the end of 1937.

CANADIANS TRAINING

Sir Philip said 100 young Canadians had come to Great Britain of their own accord to train for the air force. "We welcome these pilots," he said. "They are first-rate young men and we wish to do everything in our power to facilitate their entry."

The Government would welcome adoption by Canada of a plan such as established in Australia, where pilots are trained as cadets in the Royal Australian Air Force and then serve ten years with the Royal Air Force. A similar plan was being established in New Zealand.

Sir Philip's outline of air plans includes a new branch—the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve—a network of training schools, caches of essential materials and plans for ocean flying.

Four-motored, high-speed land-planes, Sir Philip announced, are almost ready for trans-Atlantic

CITY TO SAVE IN BOND CARE

Mayor McGavin's Suggestion Will Cut Bank Expense $1,250 Per Year

Mayor Andrew McGavin's suggestion through the finance committee that the city save $1,250 in safeguarding the sinking fund and other securities by storing them in a safety deposit box at $50 per annum was passed by the City Council last evening after heated debate. The city has been paying $1,300 per year to the bank for the privilege for nearly three years.

The motion was proposed by Alderman James Adam and seconded by Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan. Those against it were Aldermen Straith, Dewar, O'Neil, Worthington and Wills. Those for were Aldermen Morgan, Adam, Dr. Hunter, Williams, Hawkins and Mayor McGavin. An amendment by Alderman Worthington, that the matter be referred to the finance committee for investigation and also an interview with the bank, was defeated.

MAYOR'S LETTER

After submitting a letter from the bank offering to rent the city a safety deposit box for $50 per year, Mayor McGavin ordered a communication from himself read to the council. He recommended the city controller and city collector be authorized to hold keys of the safety deposit box.

Mayor McGavin pointed out that for fifty years the city kept its securities in a safety deposit box until three years ago, when arrangements were made with the bank to safeguard bonds for $1,300 per year. At the time of the change, he saw no necessity for such a move. He believed it was the council's duty to save money whenever possible.

STUDENT AIRMAN IN PLANE CRASH

J. D. Kaneen Escapes Injury When Training Machine Wrecked Near Vancouver

VANCOUVER, March 15 (P).—A moth plane used by flying students was being repaired at the Sea Island Airport today after a crash in which John D. Kaneen narrowly escaped serious injury.

Kaneen, a student pilot, was practicing approaches for forced landings. Sweeping low over a field near the airport, Sunday, the ship got out of control as Kaneen turned. It crashed on one wing. Kaneen, controlling the plane from the rear cockpit, escaped the full force of the impact and was not injured. The plane was badly damaged.

Founding of Victoria Fittingly Celebrated by Luncheon Yesterday

Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., Entertains 150 Guests at Hudson's Bay Dining-Room—C. H. French Guest Speaker

REMINISCENCES of pioneer days flowed freely again yesterday on the occasion of the celebration by the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., of the arrival at Clover Point on March 14, 1843, just ninety-four years ago, of James Douglas (later Sir James Douglas), factor of the Hudson's Bay Company, and the incorporation exactly nineteen years later, March 14, 1862, of the City of Victoria.

The celebration took the form of a luncheon at the Hudson's Bay Company's dining-room, and was both in respect of attendance and interest, one of the most successful of the long series of similar annual events sponsored by the chapter. About 150 guests were seated about the flower-decked tables, and at the head table with the regent, Mrs. A. S. Christie, and other executive officers of the chapter were the guest speaker, Charles H. French; Alderman James Adam, representing Mayor Andrew McGavin, who was unavoidably absent; Mrs. James Brown, representing the Victoria Post, Native Daughters of British Columbia; B. A. McKelvie, representing the Native Sons of British Columbia; the honorary regent, Mrs. R. B. McKelvie, and the honorary vice-regent, Mrs. Colin Cummins.

The customary requirements were sought in selecting the site for the Hudson's Bay Company's fort, Mr. French recalled. Good water presented a problem, the first well, within the fort, and the second, near Johnson Street bridge, proving unsatisfactory; wells were dug, in turn, at the head of View Street, then at Spring Ridge, and the water carried from there until, with the help of a generous citizen, water was brought from Elk Lake and, still later, from Sooke.

The constructional details of the old Hudson's Bay fort were described. The search for cedar for the "shakes" used to shingle the buildings was responsible for the naming of "Cedar Hill," this generally designating the area from which the cedar was procured. It was not until later the hill was officially named Mount Douglas.

Although there were Indian tribal troubles along the Puget Sound in early days, these did not extend to this part of the Coast, an index of the firm control which Sir James Douglas and his Government had over this area. While the company had little trouble with the Indians, on one occasion they caused some annoyance by stealing firewood belonging to the S. Beaver. They were awed into good behavior by the firing of a few rounds of cannon, but the Indians, with unconscious irony, gathered up the balls and traded them in shortly afterwards for merchandise.

COMMERCIAL RELATIONS

Mr. French referred briefly to some of the early commercial associations of the company with the Puget Sound Agricultural Company, and told something about the four first farms operated by the company on the island, viz., "Viewfield," "Langford" (started in 1851), "Craighill," and "Constance Cove" (Skinner's Farm), both started in 1852. Sir James Douglas was in control of these until the appointment of Mackenzie as manager. The narrative closed with a brief description of how the Hudson's Bay Company's warehouse at the foot of Store Street was hurriedly built to settle a dispute as to the site of Victoria.

Mrs. Christie welcomed the guests and introduced the other speakers: Alderman Adam, who brought greetings from Mayor McGavin and the city, noting that Victoria would make fitting celebration during the coming Summer of Victoria's seventy-fifth anniversary. Mrs. James Brown brought greetings from the Native Daughters, and Mr. McKelvie from the Native Sons, both congratulating the chapter on the work they were doing in keeping alive the traditions of the past, and adding a special word of appreciation to Mr. McKelvie, who was responsible for the inception of the idea.

Mrs. Bertha Parsons read Ernest MacGavin's poem dedicated to Mrs. McKelvie, and Mrs. Colin Cummins, honorary vice-regent, and Mrs. William Ellis, Municipal Chapter regent, spoke appreciatively of the interest shown by the speakers, and the help given by Mrs. Cowan, who supplied the incidental music.

NEW ZEALAND PROSPEROUS

Glowing Picture of Dominion
Painted by Former Trade
Commissioner

C. M. Croft, for fourteen years
Government Trade Commissioner at Auckland, New Zealand, was in Victoria yesterday, en route to Ottawa and Nova Scotia. After visiting Halifax, where he was raised and educated, Mr. Croft will return to the West, and after a brief stay in Vancouver and Victoria, will proceed to Tokyo, where he will assume his new duties as commercial secretary to the Canadian Legation.

Though New Zealand has suffered from the depression, the Dominion is now enjoying a mild boom period, said Mr. Croft, when interviewed at the Empress Hotel by The Colonist yesterday. "Recovery has been due to improved sales of butter, cheese, wool and meat, which constitute a large proportion of her exports. Money is easier, and merchants freely admit that trade during Christmas 1936 was the best ever. People are spending more freely, and buying a better quality of articles."

PUBLIC PROSPEROUS

The current financial position of the public is shown by the figures of bank deposits and note circulation," he continued. "Average weekly value of bank deposits during December, 1936, was $74,000,000, the highest since March, 1936. Weekly average of note circulation, representing transactions other than by cheque, reached a new record level of $36,000,000."

Mr. Croft declared that industry of all kinds showed considerable expansion, while overseas trade is decidedly on the upturn. Canada supplied 7.3 per cent of New Zealand's total imports in 1936, as against 6.75 per cent in 1935. In 1936 this Dominion took 1.95 per cent of New Zealand's exports as against 1.41 per cent in 1935.

He maintained Canadian goods enjoy a good reputation in commercial circles, and that this nation may look forward to maintaining and increasing her trade with
New Zealand.

WOULD ARBITRATE
BOARD ESTIMATES

must give the school board notice of a board of arbitration forthwith.
He stated such a board was composed of a trustee, an alderman and a third member appointed by the two board members.

Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan
wanted to know if it was usual for the school board to bring in estimates on the last day with no time for them to be studied by the council. Mayor Andrew McGavin declared the council could demand arbitration and settle the matter.

Alderman Edward Williams said he would support Alderman Worthington's suggestion if he added notification of a board of arbitration.
Alderman W. T. Straith believed the school board had made an honest attempt to cut estimates. He was opposed to an outsider on any board of arbitration.

Then the council went into a committee of the whole to discuss the board estimates. In response to a question, Mr. Pringle reiterated his statement that Monday was the last day the council was empowered to call for a board of arbitration.

SALARY QUESTION

Alderman R. A. C. Dewar wanted to know if the council had a strong case to arbitrate. Alderman Morgan asked if such a board could deal with adjustment of salaries.
D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller and treasurer, answered that teachers had a contract good until the end of June. Alderman Dewar pointed out that many city teachers had served for a number of years and were in receipt of their maximum salaries, which possibly made the payroll seem high in comparison with other cities.

In response to a question, Alderman Williams was informed by Mayor McGavin that estimates would stand at their present figure unless a board of arbitration was formed.

Alderman Straith stated the council was expressing lack of confidence in the board by asking for arbitration. He suggested asking trustees to voluntarily meet the finance committee.

MIGHT LOSE RIGHT

Alderman Archie Willis asked the city solicitor if the school board could consider its estimates. Mr.
Pringle replied that the council must decide to enforce a board of arbitration at the meeting or lose its right. On the other hand, he ventured a guess that the council might get better deal if estimates were reconsidered by trustees.

Alderman Straith moved, and Alderman James Adam seconded, a resolution that the council demand a board of arbitration, but hold machinery in abeyance until trustees conferred with the finance committee on Wednesday morning.
The motion passed. Then the council went out of committee and adopted its report. All members of the council will be invited to attend the conference, Mayor Mc-
Gavin announced.

School Opening
Set for April 5

SIDNEY, March 13.—The official opening of the North Saanich Consolidated High School will take place in the school building, Centre Road, on Monday, April 5.

This opening was previously announced for another date. The change in date has been necessary to permit Hon. Dr. Weir, Minister of Education, to be present on that occasion.

B.C. Forest Policy Must Face Facts if Crop to Be Assured

E. C. Manning, Chief Forester, Sounds Warning in Conservatively Worded Address Given Before Vancouver Business Group

VANCOUVER, March 15.—Encouragement of natural regeneration of British Columbia forests, especially in the Coast area; greater attention to forest fires, trade extension efforts on Western hemlock and cedar, and re-examination of the woods as cover for game, recreation, and the conservation of moisture, were all elements in a forest policy that is being worked out jointly between the Province and the timber and lumber industry, E. C. Manning, chief forester, said in an address here today before the Vancouver Board of Trade. He said, in part:

"I suggest to you that our forests are the real Central Bank of British Columbia. They stand as automatic governors of our streams. They act as security for our borrowings. They are a splendid investment for our sinking funds. They will pay dividends in good years and in bad. There will be no failure if proper business principles are used in their management. Keep the assets in a productive state, and do not dissipate the capital."

DOUGLAS FIR STANDS

"According to our latest figures, we estimate there are 125 billion feet of merchantable timber in the Vancouver forest district, of which we think about fifty-six billion feet is accessible under present logging methods and market conditions. Last year we cut two and a half billion feet in this lower Coast district. There are thirty-six billion feet of fir altogether, and we believe only about sixteen billion feet are at present accessible. Last year we cut one and a half billion feet of fir.

"Superficially, these are the necessary figures for the working out of this problem of the duration of our present supplies of mature timber—but they are incomplete and the balance are largely subjects of conjecture. Our present accessible figures are partly a matter of opinion. It is reasonable to suppose that a portion of our timber stands that are at present considered inaccessible or unmerchantable may be marketable twenty years hence. Be that as it may, you will find food for thought in working out this problem."

SURVEY RESULTS

"Last year," the chief forester continued, "we conducted a special survey of the cut-over lands in the E. & N. Railway belt, covering more than three-quarters of the approximately 350,000 acres involved. After making a liberal allowance of ten years as a period in which we might expect nature to seed in cut-over lands, we found 52 per cent of the acres logged prior to 1926 were either barren or under only a partial crop. That is probably representative of the whole Douglas fir cut-over area."

"There is already in this lower Coast region more than 500,000 acres of the best forest land in the province cut over or burned over, which, as far as we can foresee, will remain mostly barren for a long time to

Y.M.C.A. Financial Campaign Meeting With Huge Success

OVER $7,000 was reported pledged at the final report meeting of the Y.M.C.A. financial campaign in the cafeteria last evening. However, as many of the workers have cards not yet canvassed, the meeting decided to continue the drive until Friday, when the final figures will be announced. Of the $7,162.45 pledged, $4,644.95 has been received in cash. This year's drive has realized $2,000 more than last year at the same date. The sum of $2,098 has been received by the special committee, with the large army of workers accounting for the remainder. Major Warren Martin's division is leading the field with $1,187.86 pledged. Captain P. R. Willis' team was high for the meeting.

come. I would remind you that barren land pays no taxes and supports no payrolls. It is a liability.

"There is a further area of probably 400,000 acres which is only partially stocked as yet. While much of this may slowly stock up of itself, it means a lowered production per acre. In the meantime we are helping ourselves liberally to a crop worth $100 to $200 per acre, and not even leaving the land in a productive state for our children," Mr. Manning said.

Nonagenarian of Somenos Passes

DUNCAN, March 15.—Funeral services for Mrs. H. W. Noley, nonagenarian resident of Somenos, were held at the Duncan United Church on Friday afternoon, with interment at the Mountain View Cemetery. Rev. W. F. Burns officiated and the pallbearers were W. B. Buckmaster, F. Bellar, J. Hightead, F. Corbie, W. H. Hargin and T. Woods.

Mrs. Noley, who was born in Suffolk, England, in 1846, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Beattie, Powell River, last Tuesday night. She had lived in Canada for forty-four years, spending three years from 1917 to 1920 at Keating and from 1920 on at Somenos and Powell River. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. C. Buckmaster, Somenos, and Mrs. George Beattie, Powell River, and two sons, W. W. Noley, Olds, Alta., and H. H. Noley, Colfax, Calif.; sixteen grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

SPRING ASSIZES BEGIN IN CITY

Meha Singh Is on Trial at Court House on Charge Of Committing Perjury

With Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald presiding, the assize court opened here yesterday morning with the trial of Meha Singh being the first case to be heard. This is a case of alleged perjury by the accused arising out of an assault trial in the city police court in which Meha Singh was charged with having assaulted Gurdit Singh, known also as "Old John."

It is alleged that the accused committed perjury when he swore that he did not see Gurdit Singh on December 26, 1935, the day of the alleged assault, that he did not hit him on that day, and that he did not see Sundar Singh, one of the witnesses who testified to the assault.

The Crown is represented by Caw Martin, with Gordon Cameron appearing for the defence. Richard C. Lowe, who appeared for the private prosecution in the police court, is also acting with Mr. Martin.

POLICE EVIDENCE

Early in the afternoon, the case for the defence was reached when Constable Louis Callan, of the city police, who had been detailed to visit premises where the trouble among the East Indians took place, said that he found that Gurdit Singh had been drinking. There were a number of East Indians in the place, but all of them agreed that there had been no attack upon Gurdit Singh as represented. The latter was in bed covered with mud.

Bhola Singh also testified to Gurdit Singh being drunk. George A. W. Burkhar was called as a witness yesterday and testified that he saw Meha Singh and Gurdit Singh on the day in question. To Mr. Cameron, witness admitted that there had been some trouble between Meha Singh and himself over a truck.

The trial will continue this morning.

The jury hearing the case follows: Reginald T. Chave, foreman; Frank P. Thomas, Holda J. Farmer, Albert A. Appleyard, Alfred G. Joyce, Harold A. Lees, R. C. J. P. Parson, William Gardiner, John Thwait, Henry W. Fisher and Adolphus Blunt.

MRS. M. J. MELROSE PASSES TO REST

COBBLE HILL, March 15.—The thinning ranks of Island pioneers were again broken with the passing at her home on the Cobble Hill-Shawinigan Road of Mrs. Margaret Jane Melrose on Tuesday night, March 9. Mrs. Melrose was in her sixty-seventh year, and was born in the Shawinigan district. Her husband, Charles Melrose, predeceased her thirty-three years ago.

Mrs. Melrose is survived by one daughter, Miss Mona Melrose, at home, and two brothers, W. G. and R. J. Manley, at Cobble Hill.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. on Friday from the family home, the cortege proceeding to St. John's Church, Cobble Hill, where interment was made. Rev. E. M. Willis officiated, and the hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Makepeace accompanied the singing. The following acted as pallbearers: J. M. Lindell, William Bell, K. F. Duncan, D. R. Hattie, I. L. Douglas and J. H. Blyth. Funeral arrangements were in the hands of R. W. Whidden.

Mrs. A. J. Smith Dies in Nanaimo

NANAIMO, March 15.—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, wife of Andrew J. Smith, of 627 Howard Avenue, passed away at 12 noon today in Nanaimo Hospital, following a brief illness. Mrs. Smith was born in Victoria sixty-two years ago and had resided in Nanaimo for the past forty-five years. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Alfred Nash and Wilfred B. Nash, Nanaimo; one daughter, Mrs. J. D. McDonald, of Hedley, B.C.; three stepsons, Leon Smith, Powell River; Edward and Raymond Smith, of Nanaimo; also three stepdaughters, Mrs. Patrick Donohue, Chemainus; Mrs. P. Taylor and Mrs. H. Wright, of Vancouver. One brother, Charles P. Taylor, of Seattle, also survives. Pending funeral arrangements the remains repose at the D. J. Jenkins, Ltd., Undertaking Parlors.

B. C. Professor Goes to Alberta

EDMONTON, March 15 (P).—Appointment of Ernest G. Gullwick, associate professor of electrical engineering in the University of British Columbia, to head that department in the University of Alberta was announced here today by President W. A. R. Kerr. Robert K. Gordon, a member of the University of Alberta staff for twenty-four years, has been appointed head of the department of English, President Kerr said.

Makes Big Plans For Road-Building

VIENNA, March 14 (P).—To please tourists, soldiers and the unemployed, Austria is planning the biggest road-building programme. About one-eighth of an internal loan, $4,200,000, will be used for parts of three highways of international importance.

CALGARY, March 15 (P).—Pioneer Western lawyer, Gregory A. Trainor, fifty-seven, was found dead in his room at a downtown hotel today. He was a victim of a heart attack.

Value of Books Is Theme of Talk By Mrs. Sullivan

Those who heard Mrs. Albert Sullivan's talk, "My Book Shelf," in the Y.W.C.A. clubrooms, spent an evening rich in literary interest. As an introduction Mrs. Sullivan intimated that she would not deal with books having a definite intellectual appeal, but rather with those that combined the intellectual with a touch of the emotional.

To sound the depths of many books a background of mythology, and an experience of the imaginative through fairy tales were recommended by Mrs. Sullivan. Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth," based on a Greek myth, was given as an example of the way in which a story may be interpreted in the light of a myth and given an underlying theme, thus widening the understanding and vision of the reader.

Mrs. Sullivan spoke of Walter Scott and J. M. Barrie, mentioning particularly Barrie's "Courage," and "What Every Woman Knows," and "Margaret Ogilvie," also "Blind Raftery" by Don Byrne. She pleaded against an attitude too rigidly practical through which one misses the enchanting buoyancy of the imaginative. "The Enchanted Voyage," by Robert Nathan was recommended as being refreshingly imaginative.

As a study of charming personality, Anne Lindeberg's "North to the Orient," and "The Native's Return," by Louis Adamie were mentioned. In touching on books of fascinating historical interest, Mrs. Sullivan spoke of "Mary Queen of Scotland and the Isles," by Stefan Zweig, and "My Country and My People," by Lin Yu Tang as extremely interesting.

On Friday the closing talk of the series will be given at 8 p.m. in the Y.W.C.A. clubrooms. Mrs. Allen Peebles will take "Music Hath Charms" as the subject of her talk. The Y.W.C.A. Girls' Council invite any girls or women interested to come. Refreshments will be served.

FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING RESIDENT

Police have found no trace of Mrs. D. M. Price, 3471 "S" Street, missing since Saturday evening. Harold English, 3140 Cook Street, found a grey coat, brown felt hat and a pair of cotton gloves, identified as belonging to Mrs. Price, hanging on a girder of the bridge early Sunday morning.

Dragging operations were conducted Sunday and yesterday by Sergeants Arthur Bishop and Sidney Wilkinson, Constables David Donaldson, Alex Briggs, Douglas Bone, Edward Sturrock and Ben Acreman. Detectives Henry Jarvis and William Stark are working on the case. Dragging will be resumed today.

The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

HON. G. SLOAN WOULD AMEND CONSTITUTION

Matter Affects Self-Government of Dominion, Manufacturers Told

MAKES SUMMARY OF FEDERAL RELATIONS

The relations of this Province with Ottawa were concisely summarized by Hon. Gordon M. Sloan, K.C., Attorney-General, at the annual meeting of the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association held in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Mr. Sloan pointed out that the Dominion was governed by the British North America Act, that the provinces were protected by safeguards and checks provided in section 92, giving them jurisdiction over property and civil rights, and it was under this section that 90 per cent of provincial legislation fell. He outlined the efforts of the Dominion Government to encroach upon these powers, particularly in the matters of insurance and social legislation, and how they had been halted by successful appeals to the Privy Council. An effort by Ottawa to invade the field in regard to labor laws under section 132 of the act, which deals with conventions affecting labor laws, was also held ultra vires by the Privy Council.

IN FEDERAL FIELD

The province had also held section 498A of the Criminal Code regarding price-cutting and rebates, was also within its jurisdiction, but the Privy Council declared it was within the legislative competence of the Dominion. "Matters of prosecution regarding loss leaders, therefore, rest with the Federal authority," the speaker declared.

"We held too, that under the provisions of the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act, the Board of Review were affecting provincial rights and we, therefore, objected, but in that we were not successful. It is a matter of concern to me that such a board may interfere with Crown contracts," he continued.

Mr. Sloan contended that since these matters involved Canada's constitution, the only solution was an amendment to the B.N.A. Act.

WANTS ACT AMENDED

He declared it his considered opinion that "we shall not be a self-governing nation until our constitution is domiciled within our own Parliament, providing always, that minority rights are not affected."

Speaking of the Provincial relations with Ottawa, the Attorney-General pointed out that under the terms this province joined Confederation, British Columbia gave up its rights to collect certain excise and customs duties and received therefore, certain grants and subsidies. Over the period 1871-1934 there was a debit balance favoring the province of $147,000,000. "There must be an adjustment," he contended, "otherwise the province is going to take so much longer to get back on top."

Mr. Sloan stressed the fact that the province was not antagonistic to the Dominion, and that both Governments were working towards a common objective, though not always along a common path. He was thanked by Captain P. C. Brown.

SPAIN'S CIVIL WAR

The Spanish civil war is dragging its weary length across the stage of world history. Few could have predicted, at its outbreak, that fighting so prolonged and intensified would have ensued, and with the issue still remaining in doubt. The so-called rebels, who represent at least 50 per cent of the people, perhaps more, have occupied nearly 70 per cent of the country, and their armies have been on the threshold of Madrid for some months past. It is true that they have received more outside aid than their adversaries, and that of course is due to there being more world sympathy with their cause. It is that aid which has been a factor in their successes, and on the whole those successes, though interrupted, have been extended throughout the revolt.

The blockade of Spain by neutrals to prevent aid going to either of the warring parties is now in force. It is a moot point as to whether it will have a tendency to prolong or shorten the struggle. At the best it can only be a partial blockade, despite the forces at the disposal of the neutrals. Aid in men and munitions will continue to drift into Spain despite every vigilance. The danger of the blockade is that of international repercussions. The search of ships always arouses bad feeling. The Powers have come to the conclusion that there is less danger in this method than in allowing nationals of other countries to enlist in the armies of the combatants. That is a question that only time can prove.

The whole situation is a sorry business and illustrative of the intensity of feeling which can develop between political creeds. Spain's civil war, for it is that more than a revolution, is a contest between Rightists and Leftists. It is a civil war, because had it been a revolution it would have been put down long since or achieved a speedy triumph.

CAUSES OF MENTAL UNREST

Mr. Ford Madox Ford, a British novelist, says that the present ferocity of the world is the result of badly prepared food. Indigestion, it appears, means short tempers; perhaps, too, it is accountable for so many obsessions and strange creeds. In answer to him The New York Times says that cooking was no better in the Victorian era than it is now, and yet then, on the whole, the world was distinctly peaceful. It regards Mr. Ford's theory as somewhat too sweeping, but admits that as it applies to many individuals it has something to recommend it. Possibly it is as much the speed applied to eating in these later times that creates a sour outlook because he who sows hurry reaps indigestion.

There may be a better explanation of short tempers to be found in the statement of Mr. Rex Beach, writing in The Cosmopolitan Magazine (United States), to the effect that two-thirds of us "have whinnying feet." His claim is that the average person knows less about the care of the feet than he knows about the night life of a terna-pin. All that is realized is that bad feet bring misery and a restless mentality and impair health. Mr. Beach says few doctors have bothered to look into this aspect of human disorders, and yet the pains emanating from a bunion are about as serious as any. He describes the method of removing a part of the joint, or the entire head of the bone, as "deliberate mayhem," because "a vital weight-bearing point is thereby destroyed, the foot function is crippled and the damage cannot be repaired."

Although not a medical man, Mr. Beach claims that bunions are displacements and primarily enlargements. He says they are caused by the slipping of the tendons that hold the great toe straight, so that it buckles at the base and is jammed against its neighbors. In other words, he considers it a functional disorder. It is quite conceivable that bunions, as well as bad cooking, may be responsible for the acidity that has entered into so many mentalities.

FLYING OF FLAGS

The right kinds of flags to fly in connection with the Coronation is being discussed in England. The Union Jack is regarded as the national flag and it is permissible for any British subject to fly it on land. There has been, however, a prolonged controversy over the rights and wrongs in the flying of the Red Ensign, and the White Ensign sometimes displayed by English churches. The most debatable flag of all is the "sleazy rusty-red" adopted as the official color in the ensigns and flags used in the Navy, the Army and the Air Force.

It is generally accepted in England that the red St. George's Cross on a plain white ground is the proper flag for Sundays and religious festivals. The White Ensign belongs to the Navy. The Board of Admiralty has made it clear that British subjects have no business to fly the White and Blue Ensigns indiscriminately on land. The Red Ensign is also "of His Majesty's Fleet." Despite this ruling the Red Ensign has been flown over the grand stand at Epsom, where it is wholly out of place.

A correspondent of The London Times says: "The introduction of the rusty-red bunting, believed to be now general in the three Services, must have its effect on the Coronation celebrations. Presumably naval, military and R.A.F. establishments will contribute to the galaxy of the scene with ensigns and flags containing the brown, white and blue, and it will be interesting to see the effect of the new regulation when His Majesty's Fleet is dressed overall for the Coronation Review. For the purpose of decorating the streets with flags the British Color Council has recommended the bright 'signal-red' as the appropriate hue instead of the usual Union Jack red, and this recommendation will enable public bodies to employ a gayer color than if they endeavored to follow either the old or the new 'red' of the official Union Flag. It appears that the Crown Colonies, for one, will have nothing to do with the rusty-red, and the same is probably true of the Mercantile Marine, so that certain flag decorations for the Coronation will still retain at least some semblance of the traditional national colors. The most pitiful feature of the rusty-red affair is that, so far from its being an economical measure, the new brown-toned bunting actually costs a farthing a yard more than the decent red it is intended to replace. Possibly there may be still grounds for hope that it is not too late to see the rusty-red regulation rescinded."

SPOONERISMS

"Klingering congs their titles take" was the first metathesis which launched Spoonerisms on their career. The story has it that in announcing a hymn the Rev. Dr. W. A. Spooner did so in the way noted, causing a burst of laughter among his hearers. It is recorded of him, too, that at a meeting of the Political Economy Club at Oxford a Dr. Child brought an heretical friend who disputed Professor Spooner's economic views. In replying to him in a long speech the professor always alluded to him as "Dr. Friend's child." Other Spoonerisms attributed to the same source are "From Iceland's greasy mountains," "Excuse me, but you are occupying my pie" (in chapel). Various such slips of the tongue have been attributed to Professor Spooner, but many of them were perpetrated by university students of his day, the following among scores of others: "She has just received a blushing crow," "For real enjoyment of which give me a well-boiled icicle," "Reaching forward to the things that are behind," "Where must and wrath do corrupt," "A camel passing through the knee of an idol," "His wife was stealing at the doors," "Feeling a half-warmed gish rising in his breast," "Is it kistomary to cuss the bride," "Is the Bean dizzy," "Plattified and grattered," "Kelly and Sheets" and "Asses of mice."

Many hundreds of others are being recalled at this time when the editor of The Periodical, a house organ of the Oxford University Press, is asking his readers to send him any Spoonerisms they have collected. Evidently they are being assembled for inclusion in the Oxford English Dictionary.

VANCOUVER'S "LORD MAYOR"

The Times Weekly Edition of February 25 presents, on page 28, a picture of some interest to Canada as a whole and the city of Vancouver in particular. The picture shows a flag being "placed in position" in the Church of St. Lawrence Jewry, Gresham Street. This flag shows the Union Jack in the corner. In the legend below the picture it is spoken of as the Canadian flag. It is in fact "a Canadian flag," but it is not "the Canadian flag." It is the flag of the Canadian merchant marine. As everyone in Canada knows and as The Times ought to know, the Canadian flag is the Union Jack.

Not the least interesting and impressive feature of the matter, however, is the statement below the picture that the flag was presented to the church by the Lord Mayor of Vancouver.

There is a Bill before Parliament at Ottawa that would make the words "Quint," "Quints" and "Quintuplets" the exclusive property of the board of guardians of the Dionne sisters. The word "Quint" is local English, meaning a scallop or queen. The word "Quint" means an organ stop giving tones a fifth above those of the keys that are pressed. "Quintuplet" means five things of a kind used or occurring together. Are there any other words from the dictionary that the author of the Bill would like to make the "exclusive property" of someone or other? The present session at Ottawa is supposed to be a business one, not one for silly time-wasting.

The Stratford Beacon-Herald answers Mr. Tim Buck's complaints about his inability to obtain copies of Hansard while imprisoned in Kingston Penitentiary by saying that narcotics are not allowed in penal institutions.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

Spring, the renewal of life, is almost upon us. Any day now trees and shrubs that have lain dormant all Winter will break out in their coats of multi-shaded green. Leaf buds are forming at the tips of the chestnut twigs. Privet and other hedges have sprung their first young shoots. The Straits of Juan de Fuca are clearing of their mists. Broom, and its sister gorse, have left the dull drab ranks of dried twigs and are ready to clothe a countryside in fresh raiment. Down on the shore, water is taking on a bluer look from the sky, losing the liverish hues of Winter. Clouds are drifting higher in the atmosphere, and becoming fleetly capricious. The grass has taken on a new lease of life, and is growing fast. Spring bulbs have been in bloom for many days. The birds are paired off two by two, as if they expected a second Noah and a new Ark. It all reminds me of a cartoon published before the war, of a jubilant professor who danced blithely in cloak and mortar board upon the greenward, while nearby a serious faced lamb regarded him doubtfully. Said the professor to the lamb: "Dance, you son of a gun, it's Spring!"

From a correspondent comes the suggestion that theatre programmes such as we knew in the old days be revived, and applied to motion picture shows. In support of the suggestion the correspondent cites some telling facts. A good film, thus, has good actors and actresses, a worthwhile story, and at least some musical score that is worth identification. Inexpensive programmes, it is suggested, could be set out in a single paragraph the story of the play itself, followed by its leading players, and the chief musical items on the programme.

It is argued by the proposer that the current practice does not give patrons time to absorb from the screen the pleasurable details of the production that are printed on programmes in connection with the legitimate stage, and that this is a loss in audience-reaction. If the handbills were small and uniform, they could be filed for reference, with second-features on their backs. As the correspondent suggests, the idea is to secure anticipatory information which would assist in actual enjoyment of the show. I pass it along as at least an interesting suggestion.

Even a minor columnist receives note and comment from the public, and while it is not possible to respond to such correspondence, many interesting suggestions are at times turned in. In this category also, was a letter from a local reader who has made more than a passing study of unnecessary noises in our form of civilization. Society, he believes, will have to engineer and carry out a campaign against noise, some day. Columnists may not campaign, without forfeiting their right to appeal, if possible, to all people; but they can pass along interesting facts. Here, then, is a summary of extra unnecessary, and preventable noises that one man logged recently at The Junction, Pandora Avenue: vehicles which have reached their second childhood, and rattle/acceleration of all automobiles by the pedal route, after frequent stops, without change of gears; redundant tooting of horns, sirens, klaxons and other forms of mechanical aids to bedlam; motor-cycles pop-popping along with their cut-outs open; an occasional street-car that rattles fast over the points of rail intersections; worn-out brakelings, with their screeching.

"Compared to some of these noises, the ripple of a machine gun would be a soothing and comforting sound," states the correspondent, who is a man who knows what a machine gun sounds like at its business end. Noise means little to those who can escape it, but how about the shut-ins, the invalids, and those whose nerves make even the fall of a book on the floor the refinement of torture? It is definitely worth considering. We can all stop some of the clatter, if we try. Even I shout on the telephone!

Discussing "compulsion" and legislation the other day, a distinguished member of the British Columbia Legislature said that all legislation was compulsion. In a sense that is true, but it is not the whole truth. Legislation that proves enforceable has the will of the people fully behind it, and while it compels, it does so at the direct behest of all the people. Compare such an Act, say, as the Noxious Weeds Act (a manifest absurdity because the Province itself could not afford to cut the weeds produced on its own lands) which is practically dormant as a law, with the law dealing with hit-and-run drivers, over which there can be no dispute; and that again with the Natural Products Marketing Act of British Columbia, which has led to open clashes at bridgeheads in Vancouver. So there are degrees in law, as in politics, and good law is based on universal concurrences of will. An Act rejected by part of the supporters of an administration, and passed with the help of part of the Opposition may have the universal support of the people, and then again, it may not. The point has never been tested. In essence, you can compel people only when they are willing; the exception being despotism, which defeats itself.

PHILATELISTS WILL EXHIBIT

Vancouver Island Association Plans Show in Connection With Jubilee Celebration

An exhibition of postage stamps open to all Vancouver Island collectors and members of the Vancouver Island Philatelic Society, whether resident on the Island or not, was decided upon at a meeting of the organization held in the Empress Hotel recently. The affair will be held in conjunction with the Jubilee celebrations here, probably June 4 and 5, in the hotel. Awards of medals and certificates will be given in both junior and senior classes. It is believed a non-competitive exhibit will also be held. Hubert Lethaby and his committee were thanked for their work in this connection.

Herbert Killam, a club member, gave an interesting talk on Scandinavian stamps, and an auction was held, under the direction of V. N. Bigwood. Short talks were also given by Mr. Bigwood and J. N. Anderson.

P. L. James occupied the chair.

QUICK THINKING

In nine out of ten situations at the bridge table, deliberate thought is the prerequisite of successful action. In the tenth case it is absolutely fatal to "go into a huddle." The one salvation is to convince the opponents that there is nothing to think about. Today's hand is a striking illustration of this point. Had declarer given even a fleeting thought to his first play, a vulnerable small slam would have melted like the snows of yesterday.

Wrong or Right

Although Eddie Cantor referred to Deanna Durbin as an "American," she is really Canadian born, and her fellow countrymen are pleased and proud to learn that she is to travel to England this Spring for a command performance before our King and Queen. Those who saw Miss Durbin in her picture, "Three Smart Girls," however, do not agree with Eddie Cantor when he says: "She possesses more charm, more poise and more personality than a half-dozen of the biggest female stars in Hollywood today."—R.F.G.

Health Lurks in the Flower

The claim is made that a diet of flowers is rich in vitamins A and B. Every garden has its menu rich in vitamins of life. There is diet for the hungry that saves cooking by the wife. You may go wherever flowers grow, where the bee the honey supe, Eat the camass, or wild lilies, or the yellow buttercup; You may have your pansy fritter, you can make eschscholtzia paste, You can munch the violet dainty, or the rose of perfumed taste; Then there is the rhododendron, the beonia, the sunflower, Lupin, penstemon and pansy will enrich your diet's dower; You can try nasturtium salad, iris, souflee, poppy soup, And you'll feel an all occasion mightily fit and cock-a-hoop; Every dish will be scent-laden, there it blooms for you and me, As we browse on honeysuckle, and we emulate the bee.

Caught at Last

Aubrey, a native son, not long ago was betting some of his friends that not more than a handful of residents could name twenty rivers on Vancouver Island. Chubman Harry spent half a day working on a large map in the Legislative Buildings and proudly turned in a list of seventy-nine rivers.

Aubrey was much intrigued by a radio song with a chorus ending "No matter what you think I still like me." He said it fitted several cabinet ministers.

After listening to all the radio news broadcasters, we came to the conclusion that Pete Pringle, heard over KPNX from midnight to 12:15 o'clock, is far ahead of others. He gives a clear and concise summary of the day's events minus advertising ballyhoo.

In the event that the City Council public works executive reads this, we should like to remind members that the many yellow lines marking safety zones and street crossings have been almost entirely obliterated. How about an entire paint-up, clean-up campaign?

The old saw of "A stitch in time saves nine" still holds good. During the course of our wanderings we noticed many small holes in the streets that might be filled before they become deep enough to damage automobile tires or trip up pedestrians.

In the palm days when we soared about in an old "puddie jumper" we used to believe there was some by-law that stated road holes must not be filled up until they reached a certain depth. We believe a weekly road patrol by the city engineer's department, followed by minor repairs, would keep the roads in far better shape.—G.B.

Don't Neglect That Persistent, Hacking Cough

Get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup from your druggist or dealer. It strikes at the foundation of the trouble. A few doses will convince you it is just the remedy you require. It helps to stimulate the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation, soothes inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucus, and aids nature to dislodge the morbid accumulations. When this is done the persistent, hacking cough will disappear, no lying awake nights, no inflammation of the bronchial tubes.

Twenty Feet of Freighter's Bottom Will Require Repairing

Whether the British freighter Queen Anne will be repaired permanently before she leaves this coast, or just sufficiently good enough to assure her seaworthiness for the passage to England, will be decided today by the Glasgow owners, the Queen Line, who will also determine which of the firms bidding on the repairs here will carry out the work.

In the meantime, the Queen Anne is in the Dominion Government Drydock, the extent of the damage which she sustained when she ran ashore on Reid Island, late Saturday night, being revealed when the big basin was pumped out and inspectors had an opportunity to look it over. The damage is confined to the forward part of the vessel, extending for about twenty feet from the forefoot, all the plates being badly crumpled. The vessel was evidently proceeding slowly at the time she struck, for, being heavily loaded, had she been traveling at any speed, the damage would have been much more extensive.

The Queen Anne was proceeding from the Fraser River to Chemainus when she hit, and on hearing her call for help, the S.S. Salvage King hurried to her assistance. While on her way, the Salvage King was advised that the freighter was afloat. Waiting near Stewart Island for her to come along, the Salvage King, accompanied by the Queen Anne as far as the mouth of Victoria Harbor, when the latter ship continued to Esquimalt, where she was docked by Yarrows Limited.

The Queen Anne is a new vessel, launched about six months ago at the Glasgow yards of Barclay, Currie & Company. She has a length of 418 feet and is registered at 4,396 tons.

TAKES CHARGE AT LIVERPOOL

J. M. Gaffney Succeeds to Important Post With United States Lines

Basel Harris, vice-president of the International Mercantile Marine Company, recently announced the appointment of J. Marshall Gaffney, former member of the New York staff, to the post of manager of the Liverpool office of the United States Lines, the company's trans-Atlantic subsidiary. Mr. Gaffney has been attached to the Liverpool office since last September and now succeeds G. W. Roper, who has retired.

Mr. Gaffney is a native of Boston and was educated at Boston Latin School, Harvard University, from which he graduated in 1931, and Harvard School of Business. He joined the staff of the United States Lines' Boston office in September, 1933. A year later he was transferred to the New York office of the line and served in the west-bound freight department until he sailed to assume his new duties in Liverpool.

As manager of the Liverpool office, he will be in full charge of all branches of the company's business in that port, including freight and passenger traffic and operations. Liverpool is the terminal port of the United States Lines' fortnightly passenger and freight service maintained by the one-class steamers American Shipper and Steamer Importer which also serve the ports of Manchester, Coblenz, and Belfast.

Hats with veils are still good, according to late dispatches from Paris, and there are quantities of little skull caps.

Members favored the motion that the vice-chairman of the provincial division be appointed to the nominating committee.

They also supported a motion, sponsored by J. O. Cameron, that the organization press for the completion of the road to Port Renfrew.

Guests of the branch at the luncheon included Hon. G. Sloan, K.C., Attorney-General; W. J. H. West, chairman, British Columbia division, C.M.A.; Capt. F. C. Brown, first vice-chairman, C.M.A.; Major L. L. Anthes, past president, C.M.A.; G. H. Harmon, Hugh Dalton and George I. Warren.

The new branch of the Royal Air Force, he said, will be filled directly from civilian ranks and will have room for 800 men the first year. He emphasized the speedy expansion of Great Britain's air personnel.

Last year, he said, the quota of 1,200 short-service officers and 235 airmen for training as pilots was surpassed, and enlistments now are in anticipation of future requirements.

TRAINING SCHOOLS
"During the coming year," Sir Philip told the House, "we intend to train 1,175 pilots." For them training schools are to be set up for ground instruction at London and other centers. Courses will begin April 1, at twelve schools.

New types of aircraft, Sir Philip declared, will increase Great Britain's aerial striking power. Two newly-developed guns will give combat ships fighting qualities superior to any the Government has ever had.

He said the need for raw materials had been carefully gauged and arrangements made for the purchase of reserve stocks and for storing them—especially gasoline and oils—in places least accessible to air attack.

The Air Ministry, he said, was unable to speed up building of airplanes as fast as it had hoped. The principal reason was a shortage of skilled workers.

Branch of Legion Elects Officers

SALTSpring Island, March 15.—Capt. M. F. Macintosh, M.C., was re-elected president of the Salt-Spring Island Branch of the Canadian Legion, when that organization held its annual meeting last Monday evening at "Harbour House," Ganges.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, Captain M. F. Macintosh; first vice-president, Gavin C. Mowat; second vice-president, A. G. Croft; secretary, T. F. Speed; treasurer, V. Case Morris.

W. B. Wilson to Head Manufacturers' Body for Ensuing Year

W. B. Wilson was named chairman of the local branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at the annual dinner of the local branch in the Empress Hotel yesterday. Other officers are: R. L. Challenor, vice-chairman; Herbert Anson, M.P.P.; C. C. Cochrane and J. M. Porter, executive. Representatives to the executive of the British Columbia division are J. O. Cameron, E. W. Izard and H. J. Pender. T. J. Goodlake is permanent secretary.

A brief resume of the business of the past year was submitted by Mr. Izard, retiring chairman. He reported that interviews had been arranged with a number of Canadian trade commissioners who visited Victoria in course of their periodical tours, and that the association branch had joined representatives of the Provincial Government and the Chamber of Commerce in greeting Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of Trade and Commerce, when he passed through Victoria to discuss trade treaty revision with the Governments of Australia and New Zealand.

CHAIRMAN'S WARNING
Attendance of members at the Vancouver was urged by the speaker. In conclusion, Mr. Izard drew attention to the fact that the cost of living is increasing so rapidly, and that "while we are now experiencing a boom, it is essential for the Government to conserve its assets. After every boom, there is a slump," he said. "The more rapid the boom, the sooner the slump. I feel we all need to use extreme caution."

Members favored the motion that the vice-chairman of the provincial division be appointed to the nominating committee.

They also supported a motion, sponsored by J. O. Cameron, that the organization press for the completion of the road to Port Renfrew.

Guests of the branch at the luncheon included Hon. G. Sloan, K.C., Attorney-General; W. J. H. West, chairman, British Columbia division, C.M.A.; Capt. F. C. Brown, first vice-chairman, C.M.A.; Major L. L. Anthes, past president, C.M.A.; G. H. Harmon, Hugh Dalton and George I. Warren.

GIVES VIEWS ON FOREIGN POLICY

Struan Robertson Speaks to Gyró Club Regarding Stand of Youth

"Canada's foreign policy of isolation and neutrality is archaic and weak and must be replaced by an up-to-date foreign policy," Struan Robertson, president of the students' council of Victoria College, said yesterday in addressing the luncheon meeting of the Gyró Club at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Robertson spoke on "Canada's Foreign Policy and the Part Young Canadians Have to Play in It."

The young speaker dealt broadly with this important subject and divided his talk into the following four sections: Canada's foreign policy of today; its narrowness; its weakness; and the advocacy of a better policy regarding foreign affairs.

Up to the present, the issue has received merely secondary consideration at Ottawa, Mr. Robertson said. "Canada has very few consuls in foreign countries, when it is considered we rank fourth in world trade, and we cannot continue to depend on British legations for transacting our business abroad," he added.

THE MUNROE DOCTRINE
With Fascism and Nazism opposing each other in Europe, the time would come when Canada must side with either one. She cannot continue to trade with the countries affected by these policies, if they are at war with each other, without committing herself to one side or the other, Mr. Robertson contended. "The Munroe Doctrine is out of date. It is foolish to think the United States would protect the shores of Canada without demanding a heavy reimbursement," he said.

"Young Canadians do not want to be brought into a war, but with all our wonderful natural resources, the nations of Europe are regarding Canada more as a 'Utopia' than an El Dorado. Consequently, an Anglo-American foreign policy is needed, Anglo because of sentiment and economic nationalism, and American on account of our geographical position and economy. We owe a debt to Britain and must keep the British Union strong. As a complement to the United States, we are dependent on them for trade and tourist business," Mr. Robertson concluded.

EMPLOYEE HONORED—On behalf of the City Hall staff, Mayor Andrew McGavin presented J. Beale, retiring member of the comptroller and treasurer's staff, with a smoking set and a testimonial of good wishes during a brief ceremony in the mayor's office Saturday morning.

Quebec Will Incorporate Armorial Council to Test Claims of Nobility
QUEBEC, March 15 (AP)—The feudal nobility of Quebec, issue of the seigniorial barons of the ancient French regime, will be given authenticity under a private bill to be presented to the Legislature this month by Maurice Pelletier (Un-Lothbier).

The bill—an Act to Incorporate the Armorial Council of Quebec—proposes to verify claims of provincial bloods and grant certificates of proof of their "nobility." It provided for registration, qualification and confirmation of the names, arms, genealogies, honors and privileges of the nobility resident in Quebec, or connected, lineally or collaterally, with New France.

MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS
To those aristocrats who have not the right to sport a coat-of-arms the bill will grant membership rights if proof is forthcoming of ownership of seigneuries or descent from owners of seigneury land prior to 1854.

Just in case otherwise eligible persons might not be acceptable the "court of governors of the Armorial Council" would have power to refuse registration to any persons, or the descendant of any person, who has been convicted of an offense judged to be a "derogation of nobility."

The provincial archivist would be final arbiter on patrician qualities.

Scoring twenty-three points during the evening, J. O'Connell won the checker tournament held over the week-end at the home of Paul Schmelz, 2024 Chambers Street. Other players scored as follows: E. Red Cross Appreciates Work of Frontier Nurse

The following tribute to the late Miss Muriel Claxton, R.N., Red Cross and Public Health nurse in the Peace River District, has been written upon receipt of the news of her death on Saturday at Fort St. John, by Mr. Hugh Birch-Jones, Provincial commissioner of the Red Cross Society.

"It is with profound sorrow and regret that we have to announce the passing in Fort St. John on Saturday last of Miss Muriel Claxton, R.N., for five years nurse in charge of the Red Cross Outpost in the Peace River District.

"Small in stature and of a quiet, unassuming nature, which belied the strength in frontier emergencies of which she was capable, Miss Claxton was beloved by all who were privileged to know her.

"Through the long and often lonely winters, and the terrific heat of the summers, in that vast pioneer district in which she played such an important part, Miss Claxton's chief concern was the welfare of her people.

"A graduate of Guy's Hospital, London, Miss Claxton came to Canada over fifteen years ago, and after a year with the Victorian Order of Nurses in Vancouver, became a Provincial Health nurse under the Provincial Department of Health in the Cowichan Health Centre.

"After three years in this post, Miss Claxton left to become a Red Cross nurse and was sent to the Peace River District, where she took charge first, of the Grand Haven Outpost, and later the Cecil Lake Outpost.

"In accordance with her expressed wish, Miss Claxton will be buried near the little outpost which she had so often spoken of and loved as home.

"If she could have had choice in the matter, this would have been her wish, that her services here would end while she was serving others."

Changes Made in Local Association's Methods

Girl Guide Parent Body Holds Annual Meeting—Thanks Badge Presented to Mrs. Kyrle Symons—Delegates to Meeting Named

The annual meeting of the local association, Girl Guides, was held last evening at headquarters when the yearly reports were read, Mrs. Kyrle Symons presiding. It was decided that, owing to the growth of the movement, each district will, in future, have its own local association which will attend to the specific interests of the companies of each district, headed by the several district commissioners. Mrs. L. A. Genge, East Victoria; Miss Leighton, West Victoria; and Mrs. Midgley, North Victoria.

THANKS BADGE GIVEN
In welcoming the large gathering of Guides, parents, friends and members of the I.O.G.E., Mrs. Symons spoke of the progress which had been made in the past year and thanked all those who had done so much in the cause of Guiding in Victoria. In appreciation of Mrs. Symons' work as president of the local association for the past three years, Mrs. Alan Morkill, provincial commissioner, presented her with the thanks badge.

GOOD TURNS
Mrs. Morkill spoke of the interest in reports which were read by the Guides, adding that "good turns are the essence of Guiding," and that "Guiding is a game to be learned and played at the same time." She impressed upon the Guides that originality was necessary to maintain the interest of the children. She warned against the danger of over-organizing.

DELEGATES NAMED
The following delegates were appointed to attend the annual Provincial meeting in Vancouver on April 16 and 17: Mesdames Symons, Corby, Ashley Cooper, Pritchard, Mr. Mackenzie and Miss Yule George. Special thanks were expressed to Mr. P. E. Corby for many kindnesses and help during the year and to Mr. H. T. Ravenhill for auditing the books. A vote of thanks was also accorded the press.

Mrs. Ashley Cooper, in her report as secretary, gave a resume of the outstanding activities of the past year and thanked those who had responded to the appeal for financial assistance and subscriptions. The Guides had taken part in patriotic services, assisted at the showing of Titania's Palace, and a week's training classes under the direction of Miss Wolton, of Foxlease, England, had done much to stimulate interest.

The badge convenor's report was read by Mrs. P. E. Corby and that of the treasurer by Mrs. Pritchard. Company and pack reports were read by the following: East district, Miss George; Miss Lomas; Miss Peetz; Miss Pite; Miss Adams; Miss Galloway; Miss Barber-Starkey; Mrs. Genge; Mrs. Pearson; West district, Mrs. Sills; Miss Ryan; Miss Morry; Miss McDonald; Mrs. Stewart; Miss Acland; Mrs. Abraham; Mrs. Cooper and Miss Leighton, the commissioner; North district, Miss Wilkinson; Miss Lowndes; Mrs. Matheson; Mrs. Pritchard and Mrs. Midgley, the commissioner.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

MODESTY—FROM "PROPER FORM"

"And the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, made He a woman."—Genesis II, 22.

According to a quaint Midrash story, God deliberating which part of Adam's body to create a woman:

"I will not create her of his head, lest she hold her head too proudly; nor of his eye, lest she be too inquisitive; nor of his ear, lest she hear too much; nor of his mouth, lest she talk too much.

"I will not choose the hand, lest she handles what concerns her not; nor the foot, lest she go astray.

"I will make her of a hidden part, in order that she may be modest."

Whereupon God created Eve from the rib of Adam.

The word "modesty" embodies this legendary, precise ponderation on the part of the Almighty.

It is rooted in the Latin "modus," due or proper measure, manner, form.

Annual Table Display Will Be Held Here

One of the highlights of Spring Garden Week, April 24 to May 1, will be the annual decorated table display to be held at the Empress Hotel on April 28, under the auspices of the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club, in aid of the Day Wigley Memorial Scholarship fund.

The various classes are as follows:

A—(1) Table to be decorated with flowers, silver or china ornaments. Candelsticks or pieces of mirror may be used. Formal arrangement.

(2) Table as above except arrangement informal.

B—Tables to be decorated with articles other than flowers, such as fruit, vegetables, figures, animals, miniature shrubs or gardens.

C—Decorative arrangement on occasional table, with lamp (unlighted) and any accessories such as figures, ornament, ash trays, etc., with floral arrangement of suitable height and shape to harmonize. Competitors to furnish table and all accessories.

D—Floral display arrangement in container to be shown against mid-night blue screen. Individual three-fold screens will be provided for each exhibit. Display not to exceed two feet in height.

E—Special occasion table: wedding, birthday, Valentine party, child's party, etc.

First and second prizes will be awarded in each class and special prizes given for the table and display voted the most popular. The Entry forms and other particulars may be obtained through Mrs. Victor Bartholomew, 1116 Fort Street, E8122.

Here are two little aprons borrowed from the peasant fashions. They're very comfortable besides being new and smart. They're becoming to youthful and larger figures.

You'll note both of them have the non-slip shoulders, which are so important for home tasks.

The basque bodice apron has a flatter collar that extends over the shoulders and down the back to the waist. This gay apron combines a peasant cotton print with plain cotton. The deep armholes and the edge of the flared skirt are finished with bias bands of the plain cotton.

The one-piece Tyrolean apron is exceedingly fascinating in plain yellow cotton with red bias bands and green print band trim.

You'll receive compliments galore in these new-looking peasant aprons.

Both aprons are made with the same pattern, which also includes an illustrated sewing chart. It shows step-by-step how to cut and stitch them.

Style No. 2826 is designed for sizes small, medium and large. Medium size requires 1 7/8 yards of 35-inch material with 1-2 yard of 35-inch contrasting and 2 yards of binding for the Basque apron. Tyrolean apron requires 2 1/4 yards of 35-inch material with 5-8 yard of 35-inch contrasting and 3-4 yards of binding.

The Spring and Summer Fashion Book is filled with lovely designs for everyday wear, which are easy and inexpensive to make.

Missionary Meeting

The Chemainus Baptist Mission Circle met recently at the home of the president, Mrs. F. Bristow. A letter was received giving the list of articles required from the circle for the White Cross Mission sale to India. A list of extra gifts was also read and several of these will be taken care of by members. Final arrangements were made for the Shamrock tea to be held at the home of Mrs. E. M. Cook on Thursday, Mrs. P. Wyllie will have charge of the refreshments, while Mrs. E. Perry will convene the table service. A short programme followed, with a reading by Miss M. Robinson and a talk, entitled "Medical Missionary Work in Africa," by Mrs. Bristow. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ed Perry.

Chemainus W.A.

The regular meeting of the W.A. to the Chemainus M.S.C.C. was held in the Parish Hall, with Mrs. L. Hipp in the chair. It was decided to issue an invitation to Miss Foster to be the guest at the May meeting and give her report of the diocesan meeting. On Friday, April 19, an Easter tea will be held in the Parish Hall, with candy and mystery stalls. The tea convenor will be Mrs. Porter, with Mesdames Aiken and Rice in charge of the mystery stall. Members are asked to bring any donations of fancywork to the next meeting. Easter decorating will be in charge of the W.A., and friends are invited to assist or bring donations of flowers on Saturday, March 27, at 2:30 p.m. Tea was served, the hostesses being Mesdames Hipp and Cherrington.

Baptist Union

The Women's Union of First Baptist Church held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlor. Mrs. Salter, the president, in the chair. Miss Laurie gave a talk on "The Work of the Oriental Home." Miss Gardiner, kindergarten teacher at the home, accompanied two Japanese girls from her class, who sang three songs together.

Canadian Daughters

The social meeting of the Canadian Daughters' League, Assembly No. 5, will be held in the Shrine Hall on Thursday at 8 p.m. A programme has been arranged by group one, under the convenship of Mrs. R. Huxtable. Nomination of officers will be received.

St. Aidan's Guild

Under the auspices of St. Aidan's Ladies' Guild, Mount Tolmie, a St. Patrick's tea will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Roper, Cedar Hill Road, tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. An interesting programme is being arranged and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

MOTHERS, DAUGHTERS

NO need for women or girls to suffer every month from periodic pains, headache or side-aches. In girlhood Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a very beneficial tonic. This is what Mrs. Sarah Jordan of 32 Darling St., Bradford, Ont., said: "At one time I was so sick I could hardly hold my head up and I felt miserable. I was frequently upset, hardly slept a wink at night and my efforts would leave me ready to cry. Also, I had pains in the back of my head. I had used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription only a short while when it helped me wonderfully. The nausea no longer troubled me and the headaches and pain disappeared." New size, 15c. 35c.

JOAN OF ARC COMPANY

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the concert recently given by the Joan of Arc Company, Girl Guides. The programme was opened by a cello, violin and piano trio comprising Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, Mrs. Dorothy Talbot and Miss G. P. Page. Miss Doreen Lillie, who with Miss Frances Law shared the role of announcer, welcomed the audience. Two plays, "The Legends of the Flax" and "Cousin Christie" were given. Those taking part were Lenora Poole, Lillian Clark, Florence Greenway, Frances Law, Peggy Reid, Madeline Prowd, Nancy Stephenson, Alice Pugh, Barbara Unsworth, Owen Dodsworth, Doreen Lillie, Peggy Reid and Dorothy Adams. Recitations and monologues were given by Barbara Gordon, Dorita Paylin, Thelma Brown, and a piano duet by Miss Adams and Nancy Stephenson. Audrey Grudge and Rose Kallenbach sang a duet. Those taking part in country dances and Danish exercises were: Barbara Unsworth, Alice Pugh, Dorothy Adams, Molly McCallum, Joan Rogers, Phyllis and Winnifred Pritchard, Gwen Dodsworth, Frances McKee, Louise Holmes, Janet Bird, Audrey Grudge, Isabelle Prowd, Thelma Brown, Dorita Paylin and Barbara Gordon. On behalf of the company, Miss Brown presented a bouquet to Miss Adams, captain of the company. Mrs. L. A. Genge, district commissioner, invited the parents and friends to attend the East District Local Association meeting in St. Mary's Hall, on March 22 at 8 p.m.

Merchants Present New Spring Styles In Lavish Display

New Gaiety and Grace Introduced With Latest Spring Fashions—Complete Selection Shown in Local Stores—Brighter Colors Are Noted—Tailored Suits Popular

GLORIOUS Spring weather ushered in the first of Victoria's Spring Fashion Week, an unofficial civic event, whereby every merchant in the city puts forth his best effort to show milady what is new and interesting what will be worn this Spring. The stores were thronged with women, eager to see and compare the new styles which are now so attractively displayed . . . and they were not disappointed.

This will be a year gay with color, alive with grace and beauty, enhanced by soft feminine modes. Pre-war luxury is brought back with the glowing hues and the swinging gaiety of the new fashions. From the crown of her little plumed hat to the soles of her dainty shoes, the well-dressed woman reflects the very spirit of returning confidence and prosperity.

MANY INNOVATIONS

There is much to remark in the styles shown. Seldom has the wheel of fashion made such a big turn, bringing into vogue modes and innovations which affect every phase of dress for every occasion. Suits have taken added importance this year but the smart, trim lines have taken a feminine softness and gracefulness that is followed out in the material, fabric and colors.

"Little jackets," with nipped in waists, flaring peplums or short boxy boleros give an air of "little girl" naivete to Spring frocks. Princess dresses, in the Tyrolean manner, or with a suggestion of the Empire line shirred bustline, are also popular.

NEW COLORS

The new colors, which owe much in richness and variety to the coming Coronation, must be seen to be appreciated. Contrast is the word in favor with many variations of the theme to meet every taste.

With the aid of window display, interior decoration of the stores, attractive use of mannequin and model, merchants throughout Victoria are presenting one of the most interesting fashion parades that has been seen for many a year. From the interest shown by the style-conscious public, it may be surmised that this week will be a busy one throughout the business section.

I.O.D.E. Activities

Arbutus Chapter

The March meeting of Arbutus Chapter, Chemainus, was held at the home of Mrs. R. Milligan, with Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Sandiland and Miss P. O'Neill as tea hostesses. The regent, Miss I. Vye was in the chair. Mrs. P. Lomas was enrolled as a new member, replacing Miss I. Fraser, who has joined Duncan Douglass Chapter. Mrs. Sandiland was chosen as delegate to the annual I.O.D.E. convention to be held at Vancouver from April 13 to 15. It was decided to hold a children's fancy dress Coronation ball on Friday, May 7, from 8 to 10 p.m., with the grand march at 9 p.m. From 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. the ball will be given for adults. Committees in charge include: Tickets and posters, Mrs. W. J. Vater; prizes, Mrs. D. McKinnon; refreshments, Mrs. J. McKinnon; music and entertainment, Miss I. Vye; decorations, Mrs. L. Newton. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss M. Laidlaw.

Fell in Love With Victoria

LADY DOROTHEA HOSIE

Writer and lecturer, who reached the city on Saturday morning aboard the Ss. Empress of Japan, spent the time while the liner was alongside the local dock driving about. She would like to stay here, she stated, but her engagements were imperative, and she had to continue East without delay.

Social and Personal

Give Party

Miss Evelyn Day, Mr. Trevor Williams, Miss Marcia Beach and Mr. Erling Olson entertained at a pre-Easter party on Saturday evening in the Victoria Women's Institute rooms, assisted by Mrs. Day, who welcomed the guests on arrival. Games and dancing were enjoyed, and Miss Elaine Willard played the piano and Mr. Dave Shepherd the piano accordion. The novelty of the evening was a spot dance, the prizes being won by Miss Ruth Gardiner and Mr. Leslie Noon. Prizes for the lucky balloons were awarded to Miss Margaret Atkinson and Mr. Trevor Williams.

Supper was served, with Miss Margaret Atkinson and Mrs. Day presiding at the coffee urn. Place cards were set for thirty guests, the color scheme being mauve, yellow and white. A silver basket filled with sweet peas and pussy-willow centred the table. The decorations were the work of Miss Louise Maynard. Favors were at each place. The guests were: Miss Evelyn Sheldrick, Mr. Leslie Noon, Miss Frances Knight, Mr. Arnold Edmonds, Miss Florence Foubister, Mr. Gordon Humber, Miss Ruby Poyer, Mr. Douglas Willard, Miss Mavis Henry, Mr. Douglas Addison, Miss June Wells, Mr. Dave Evans, Miss Waveney Bishop, Mr. Syd Kersley, Miss Joyce McLean, Mr. Norman Coates, Miss Doreen Kinsman, Mr. Jack Warwick, Miss Elaine Willard, Mr. Dave

Farewell Party

A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, 79 Cadillac Avenue, on Saturday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ward and their son, Jackie, who will leave Victoria shortly to take up residence at Pender Harbor. The evening was spent in music and games. Mr. A. Harman delighted the guests with clog dancing. A buffet supper was served at midnight, after which the guests sang "Auld Lang Syne" and joined in wishing the guests of honor the best of luck in their new home. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allison, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Window, Mr. and Mrs. A. Harman, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. W. Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. R. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kelsner, Mr. and Mrs. L. Annual Tag Day For Workroom Is Set for March 27

PLANS for the annual tag day for the Women's Workroom were discussed at a meeting of the committee yesterday afternoon and date set for March 27, the Saturday before Easter. Mrs. L. A. Gerge will be the general convener, assisted by Mrs. P. B. Scourrah. Taggers are wanted for the occasion and anyone willing to assist is asked to get in touch with the convener or members of the committee.

held in the Colquhoun Hall on Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Cummins entertained for the second birthday of her son, Bobby. The children's table centred the room, which was prettily decorated in a color scheme of yellow and green. A decorated birthday cake, surrounded by vases of daffodils and narcissi, held the place of honor. Mrs. Gregory-Allen and Miss Muriel Butt assisted the hostess. During the afternoon, Miss Muriel Butt gave several piano selections, and later Master Bobby Cummins presented his godmother, Mrs. Anna Brown, with a bouquet of flowers. The guests included Mesdames Gregory-Allen, B. White, L. Butt, Brown, O'Neill, Natal, B.C. Vowels, H. Scrimshaw, W. Payne, R. Lapp, W. Webb, Hume, E. Elwell, P. Cummins, Miss Muriel Butt, Miss Dorothy Cummins, Vancouver; Beverly and Dickie Hume, Eleanor and Frankie Lapp, Pamela and Billy Payne, Danny and Terry White, Marie Cummins, Benny Elwell, Kay Vowels, Gordon Gregory-Allen and Jimmy O'Neill.

Ping Pong Party

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Miller entertained at their home, 2487 Beach Drive, on Saturday evening, the occasion being an annual ping pong party. The winners were Mrs. J. Armstrong, Mr. F. W. Francis and Mr. R. Morrison. A buffet supper was served, followed by an impromptu programme. Contributing to the entertainment were Mr. L. A.

Grogan, Mr. F. W. Francis, Mr. R. Morrison, Mr. W. Dawson, Mr. G. R. Ford, Miss Beverly Armstrong and Miss Margaret Morrison. Mr. Miller presented the trophies to the winners, and with the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" an enjoyable evening was brought to a close. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cuzner, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grogan, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. W. Card Party Held

Mr. and Mrs. George Austin, Glyn Farm, entertained on Saturday evening, when seven tables of progressive five hundred were in play. Vases of calla lilies were arranged in the reception room and a bowl of daffodils centred the dining table. High scores were made by Mrs. M. Sheppard and Mr. G. Gilham and the consolation prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Simpson. Singing was enjoyed following a buffet supper served by the hostess. The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. L. Burrow, Mr. and Mrs. G. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Blagburn, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Gilham, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. H. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. H. Houlit, Mr. and Mrs. A. Longland, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stacey, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. B. Sheppard, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. B. Hodgson, Mrs. H. Harrison, Mrs. D. Johnston, Miss "Pat" Gilham and Messrs. H. Bowlers, L. Longland and K. Gilham.

Shower for Bride-to-be

Mrs. S. Laird, 1839 Pembroke Street, entertained recently at a shower in honor of Miss Annie Smith, an April bride-to-be. The gifts were concealed in a basket decorated in a green and white color scheme and presented by little Doreen Laird. Games were enjoyed and the supper table was arranged with narcissi and shamrock. The guests were Mesdames R. Smith, Sr., R. Smith, Jr., F. Smith, R. J. Saunders, M. Laird, J. Entwistle, T.

Baldwin, J. Hetherington, F. Butler, W. Clair, A. Lindley, J. Sinclair, S. Greaney and Misses N. Smith, H. Dash, L. Gardiner and L. Laird.

On Extended Trip

Mrs. Ernest Temple, Beach Drive, will leave on Saturday for Seattle, en route to Chicago and New York, where she will be joined by her niece, Miss Hobart Young, of the Food Research Department of Leland Stanford University. They plan to sail on the Holland-American liner Veendam for England and will attend the Coronation ceremonies in May, later proceeding to Paris. Mrs. Temple will be away for five months.

St. Patrick's Party

Miss Marjorie Timberlake was hostess on Saturday evening at a St. Patrick's party at the home of her parents, 3390 Quadra Street. Court whist was played and the prize winners were Misses Betty Austin and Lorraine Saul. The invited guests were Misses Betty and Dorothy Austin, Betty Donaldson, Lorraine Saul, Doreen Macdonald, Dorcas Muir, Dorothy Graham, Lilabelle Moore, Molly Holmes, Grace Giles and Olive French.

Leaves for Home

Mr. J. F. Macmillan, president of the Chisholm Sawmills, Ltd., and Edmonton Box & Shook Co., Ltd., Edmonton, as well as Bend Sawmills, Ltd., Bend, B.C., left to return home yesterday after a two-month holiday at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Macmillan, on his return, will stop over at both Vancouver and Calgary for a few days.

To Vancouver

Mrs. Margaret Nicol, Esquimalt Road, who has been much feted by her friends prior to her departure, will leave today for Vancouver, where she will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicol. Later Mrs. Nicol will make her home with her son, Mr. Gordon Nicol, also of Vancouver.

Delta Gamma Banquet

The fifth annual banquet of the Victoria Association of the Delta Gamma Fraternity was held at the Empress Hotel last evening. Those present were Mrs. Ian Douglas, Mrs. Thomas Denny, Mrs. Earle Macleod, Miss Inez Mitchell, Miss Yrma

MAYFAIR NEEDLE-ART DESIGN No. 301

Blue birds for happiness, butterflies for good health and baskets of flowers for prosperity are the stories told by these three ever-popular and well-known pillow slip motifs. Not only are they symbolic of good will, good health and good fortune, but are also lovely to use and interesting to work; decidedly decorative and pretty. Embroider them in white or pastel as you prefer and follow the simple stitches given in the stitch chart which comes with the pattern and transfer. The pattern includes transfers for three different designs of pillow cases, complete instructions for embroidery, details of various stitches used, color suggestions as well as samples of thread used in the original model.

Jane Dixon Says:

HOW BRIGHT AND GAY AND THRILLING LIFE WOULD BE FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN WERE IT NOT FOR THEIR "BOY TROUBLES"

How bright and gay and thrilling life would be for girls and young women were it not for their "boy-troubles."

Men can be the most-annoying creatures! Look at all the headaches and heartaches they cause the ardent young things who must wait to be asked, whether to a "movie" or a marriage altar.

There is a constant stream of such aches pouring across my desk.

Dear Miss Dixon:

Why is it that when I meet a boy he asks me for one date then leaves me cold? I'm not a bad looking girl, rather petite, twenty years old. I smoke and drink socially, but never to excess. Every time a boy-friend sees my father he seems to get scared. Could this be the reason for my not having any regular friends?—S.S.

It takes a parent who is pretty much of an ogre to scare away a young man really interested in a girl. Isn't there some boy you've known a long time—a childhood friend, a neighbor, a relative, whom you could trust to help you answer your question? How about your physical condition? Might there be anything unpleasant about that? Don't be discouraged. There must be a reason for your troubles, and you will have to be brave enough and determined enough to find and remedy it.

Dear Miss Dixon:

Jack and I loved each other. We had quarrels but always came together again. Then some friends told me he had not been faithful. He denied this, but later when he broke a date with me I saw him in a car with the girl I had heard about. I wrote him it would be better for us to part.

He wrote me several letters. I still love him and always will. Miss Dixon, how can I get him back? He's going with another girl, but I don't believe he cares for her as she is not his class. I'm worrying myself sick.—Pat.

The next time you meet him, and the opportunity presents itself, tell him quite frankly, but without emotion that you are sorry for your hasty decision and that you hope the two of you can be the best of friends. If he cares for you he will welcome the opportunity to resume your love-affair. If he cares for the other girl you will have lost nothing, but you will have gained his admiration for your sincerity and your friendliness.

Dear Jane Dixon:

The boy who means more to me than anyone or anything in the world just can't seem to see me. It doesn't seem possible he could be loved so much and not return it. I try not to show how I feel because I know it annoys him, but sometimes I can't help myself. Surely there must be some way to make him see I'm the girl for him.—Edna.

If there is a way you may be quite certain you can't win by drowning the young man with affection. The fact that we love another devotedly does not guarantee our devotion will be returned in kind or even in part. There's a very grave doubt that you are the right girl, for if you were, the young man would "see" you without any attempt on your part to coerce him. If he does not love you he does not love you. So in justice to yourself and to him you must turn your interest in other directions. (Copyright, 1937, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

LOW VITALITY MAY CAUSE 'FLU'

Beware of widespread epidemic! Keep your system free from poisons that lower resistance.

Doctors agree that one of the greatest causes of "flu" is lowered resistance caused by accumulation of harmful body wastes and poisons. Don't take chances. Keep your system free from these harmful wastes and poisons by taking Fruit-a-tives regularly. Start right now, because "flu" strikes quickly, without warning. Fruit-a-tives, the prescription of a prominent Canadian physician, contains extracts of fruits and herbs and acts to stimulate the liver and four other vital organs to normal healthy action; activate the flow of bile, cleanse the intestinal tract of harmful wastes and poisons; tend to purify the blood of poisons and acids. Guard against "flu." Get your supply of Fruit-a-tives right now. Every draught has them. Be sure you get only genuine "Fruit-a-tives."

partnership with Ben Pruss, owner of the St. James Hotel, he will reopen the Metropolis Hotel, 712 Yates Street, on April 1.

"We have improved the whole building, including the lobby, writing rooms and bedrooms, at a cost exceeding $5,000," Mr. Popick said yesterday. "On our opening we are inviting the general public to view the hotel, and we believe they will like it."

He has known Mr. Pruss for several years, and looks forward to a successful association in business. Mr. Popick is accompanied by his wife, who is as enthusiastic over Victoria as her husband.

SEEKING APPRECIATION

"Are you going to educate your sons to become United States senators?"

"I am," answered Senator Sorghum. "And also my daughters. The only way for a man to be honestly appreciated by his own family is to let it understand the trials he has been through in order to make an honest living."

HIGH NOON

by RUBY M. AYRES

CHAPTER XXX (Continued).

Heather held Henry's hand all the way to London and they were very silent. Although Effie had been disappointed because it was to be such a quiet wedding, she had told everyone that Heather looked like a princess in her simple dark brown frock and the soft sable coat that had been Henry's wedding present.

When Heather had protested that it was such too good and expensive for her to wear, he had answered that nothing was good enough, and that it would make him very happy to know that something he had given her would keep her warm.

"Everything you have given me will always keep me warm," she had answered, and she thought of her words now as they sped on through the sunshine.

There was no one in the world like Henry—there never would be! And yet only a few short months ago she had thought of him as just an ordinary, rather tiresome sort of person—funny how mistaken one could be.

They were all at the registry office, and everyone wore white heather, including the registrar himself with whom Bobbie had generously divided his own buttonhole.

And Bruce... Heather flushed adorably as she met his eyes, and her lips trembled. John had been forced to content himself with the office of best man, as nothing he could say would override Henry's determination to give the bride away.

"With this ring..." Effie dropped a silent tear.

"Till death do us part..."

"The pretty dear!" Priddy whispered as Bruce, disregarding all ceremony, put his arms round his wife and kissed her, and then, still with her hand in his, Heather turned to Henry.

"The next kiss for you," she said. "And then they all packed into the four big cars that were drawn up in the narrow street outside and sped away to Waterloo."

There was very little time for good-byes, for which everyone was thankful. They gathered round the carriage door clamoring for a last word, but Heather could hardly see the faces of her family for tears, although she was so happy.

And then, just before the train was due to start, Heather disengaged herself from Effie clinging arms and pushed her way through the crowd to a little woman in black, with very blue eager eyes, who was standing alone watching the bustle around her.

Heather touched her hand.

"Do you remember me?" she asked gently.

The blue eyes were raised to her face but without any recognition until Heather said, "Don't you remember me? We met here one day last Summer—when we were both waiting—for someone—my someone came back—I thought you'd like to know."

The little old face wrinkled into a faint smile.

"Did he? I'm glad. You're more fortunate than I am," Molly Kent said with quiet dignity, and then as the guard's whistle blew she shivered and turned away—Molly Kent, the tragic little figure who had aroused Heather's sympathy the day she came to Waterloo to meet Villetta and the man on Villetta's return from South Africa.

"Good-bye, darling..." good-bye... Write from Madeira, Heather—and send a cable when you get to Capetown."

"Don't let Bruce bully you!" This from Bobbie.

"Take care of her, Mr. Bruce"—from old Priddy.

Good-bye, my dear—God bless you! Henry Mathews wrung Heather's hand as he put an arm around Effie and drew her back from the train, which had already begun to move.

"Good-bye, Logan—take care of her. God bless you both."

John so far forgot himself as to call excitedly for three cheers, and it was the last sound Heather heard before Bruce drew her away from the window.

There was a blank silence on the platform when the train had steamed out of sight. They all felt as if the only person that mattered had suddenly been taken from them, and Effie, still trying not to cry, looked up at Henry Mathews and saw that the tears were running down his cheeks.

She slipped a comforting hand into his.

"Never mind, I'll stay with you—always," she promised rashly, and at last began to cry.

About 4 o'clock that afternoon, as the big liner was slowly making its way down Channel, Bruce took Heather on deck.

"Come and see the sunset," he said.

They stood hand in hand by the rail looking out over the sea and the sky, which were painted with a thousand glories.

They were silent for some time till Bruce said, "I had a long talk with Henry last night, Heather."

"Did you?"

He looked down at her.

"I'm not sure that you have chosen the better man, my darling."

She smiled, meeting his eyes.

"I am—quite sure."

The radiant colors of sea and sky had faded now, and only a pearly opalescence was left on the fringe of the coming night.

Heather shivered a little, but as they turned away she said softly: "It's wonderful, isn't it?"

"The sunset?" he asked.

"No—just everything."

They went below to their cabin, which seemed to be filled with flowers, and Bruce shut the door behind him.

Heather had taken off her hat and she looked very young and happy as she turned to smile at him.

"I can't believe it," she said tremulously. "I can't believe that after all these years I am really your wife."

He came towards her.

"This is my heaven," he said.

"And mine," she whispered as he took her in his arms.

The End.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE X-RAY TREATMENT OF ASTHMA

"The difficult breathing in some cases reaches the point where breathing is almost completely stopped, the breathing is wheezy in milder cases, but in the others it can scarcely be heard. The suffering of such cases is intense; the patient assumes various positions in an effort to help his breathing; there is prominence of the eyeballs; the blood vessels in the neck stand out, and there is blueness of the lips; the skin is clammy and covered with sweat."

You will admit that the above description of a typical attack of asthma gives some idea of the distressing symptoms present.

Asthmatic attacks can now be traced to house dust, dander from horses, irritation from feathers and fur, over-sensitiveness to foods and other substances, and to some defect in nose and throat. Naturally most of these cases, if not completely cured, at least obtain a certain amount of relief by the removal of the cause, and during the attack by the injection of ten or fifteen drops of adrenalin or epinephrine which is the official name.

However Dr. Charles K. Maytum and Eugene T. Leddy, of the Mayo Clinic, state that "while the treatment of patients with periodic asthma is usually quite satisfactory, workers in the field of allergy (being sensitive to various substances) have noted that in a large series of patients with asthma a certain number fail to respond to the usual treatment—avoiding the substances to which they are sensitive, removing defects of nose and throat, or getting rid of infections of teeth, tonsils, gall bladder and intestine."

In cases where all other methods of treatment have failed to give relief Drs. Maytum and Leddy report some success by the use of the X-ray. Twenty-three cases were treated, their average age being forty-six years; the average length of time they suffered with severe asthma was one and a half years.

The result showed five patients with marked and satisfactory relief lasting for months; in eight patients there was from fifty to seventy-five per cent relief of symptoms, and ten cases were classified as failures as they got less than twenty-five per cent relief.

"Although the percentage of failures is high (about forty-five per cent) it should be remembered that in this group, the X-ray treatment was used only when other methods had failed to relieve symptoms."

What Today Means

"PISCES"

If March 16 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 1:45 to 3:45 p.m., and from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 6:45 to 8:45 a.m., from 4:45 to 6:45 p.m., and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m.

Be very conservative this day. Speculative and risky ventures are apt to prove very dangerous. Indirect remarks, as well as threats, will stir up much trouble, so it will be good judgment to control your impulse to indulge in either. Salesmen and business men will have to overcome a temptation to be overly social this day. If they expect to accomplish what they have to do, procrastination is likely to be the besetting sin that will hamper both commercial and artistic undertakings. There may prevail an almost irresistible desire to show off or brag. This should be suppressed. Concentration is the power that will enable the average man or woman to get through the day without encountering difficulties. Married and engaged couples, as well as those eager to become engaged will have to be careful not to give offence by being overly frank in answering some personal question. Temper your remarks with honeyed words, and they are not nearly so liable to hurt, even if they convey a world of truthfulness.

It isn't the vitamins you TAKE—but the vitamins you ABSORB that do you good! Scott's Emulsion is 4 TO 5 TIMES MORE DIGESTIBLE than plain Cod Liver Oil. You absorb more vitamins per dose!

YOU'LL ENJOY M. W. Locke SHOES

After years of clinical practice Dr. M. W. Locke discovered that many bodily ailments were caused by unhealthy feet, poor circulation and weak arches—primarily from wearing shoes incorrectly made and improperly fitted.

He developed certain theories concerning the treatment of feet, and was so convinced that they were scientifically correct that he put them into practice.

His fame spread throughout the world. Foot sufferers began flocking to his clinic. Hundreds of ailing feet were and still are being treated every day—sometimes as many as 3,000. An important part of Dr. Locke's treatment consists of scientifically designed shoes which he prescribes for his patients, as an aid in restoring the bones of the feet to normal—and in keeping them so. Because he couldn't find such a shoe he had one built according to his own specifications.

These are the shoes fitted to his patients. These are the shoes you can now be fitted to at our store.

Come in today for a trial fitting. Learn what it means to again walk in comfort.

There is a M. W. Locke last for every type of foot.

If a woman and March 16 is your birthday, you should have a great deal of self-control. You probably are able to conceal your real feelings. You ought to be very good-natured, generous and sympathetic. Be careful popularity does not turn your head, or excessive vanity cause you to become haughty. You are capable of doing things in a big way.

There is danger of your not developing some very worthwhile talent, simply through a lack of desire. While very fond of society, you, most likely, have decidedly domestic taste, and will not sacrifice the latter for the former. As a teacher, artist, actress, author, business woman or musician you ought to do very well financially.

There is little chance of your matrimonial bark ever being wrecked. Smooth sailing seems assured for it. The child born on March 16, as soon as it merges from infancy into childhood will display a positive nature and a happy disposition. It apparently will earn the admiration of many people.

If a man and March 16 is your natal day, you should be able to make yourself popular. You must refrain from being tempted to be blunt or gruff with strangers. As an actor, educator, theologian, merchant, manufacturer, inventor or salesman you perhaps will be free from financial worries and make an enviable name for yourself.

VESSEL SANK
IN DARKNESSTwo Drown When Fishing
Schooners Collide in Halifax Harbor

HALIFAX, March 15 (P).—Halifax's second harbor accident in two days took two lives early today when the little schooner Flirt sank off McNab's Island at the harbor mouth after being rammed by the Lunenburg tanker Marshall Frank.

Captain Jake Weymouth, thirty-three, and Cook Lock, thirty-one, both of Newfoundland, were lost when the Flirt sank in the darkness. Four other members of the crew were rescued by the Marshall Frank seamen.

BLACKHEADS
Blackheads go quickly by a simple method that just dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, rub this with a hot, wet cloth gently over the blackheads—and you will wonder where they have gone. Have a Hollywood complexion.

The big Lunenburg auxiliary-powered schooner docked at the Halifax Fisheries Company wharf with a full catch off the fishing banks. Aside from slight damage to her bow, the Marshall Frank came out of the collision unharmed.

Members of her crew said they had seen no lights as their vessel moved into Halifax harbor. The crash occurred without warning, and the Flirt sank almost at once. Search for the two lost men was unsuccessful, although the tanker remained on the spot for seven hours.

The Flirt, one of a fleet of privately-owned small boats inshore fishing out of Halifax, was bound to Sable Bank when the crash came.

VISITORS TO VICTORIA

E. E. Nelson, passenger traffic manager of the Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, and C. L. Townsend, general passenger agent of the same company, with headquarters at Seattle, were transportation men spending the week-end in Victoria. They arrived in Victoria Saturday and left for home Sunday evening. While here they were entertained by A. C. Stickley, local representative of the "North Coast Limited."

NANSENVILLE
TAKES CARGONorwegian Freighter Will Be Loading General Here
For Several Days

To load general cargo left here some months ago, the Norwegian freighter Nansenville arrived alongside Rithet Piers on Sunday morning. It is understood she will be here several days.

TO LOAD LUMBER

The freighters Harmala and King Gruffydd are expected at Ogden Point Piers tomorrow, according to King Brothers. Both ships will load for the United Kingdom.

SAILING SOUTHBOUND

On her way to Sydney and way ports, the Canadian-Australasian motorship Aorangi, Captain T. V. Hill, will be here tomorrow afternoon. The liner is due at Rithet Piers at 4 o'clock and will clear for Honolulu about 5:30 o'clock.

TRIANGLE VESSELS

Earlier than usual, the big "Princess" ships of the B.C. Coast Service of Canadian Pacific Steamships will soon be operating on the triangle run, according to Captain R. W. McMurray, R.N.R., manager. The Princess Kathleen will go into commission March 24, and the Princess Marguerite will take over the night service run while the Elizabeth and Joan are getting seasonal overhauls. The Marguerite will go to the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle service on May 12.

TALKING TOUR

Mrs. Eleanor Palmer is making arrangements to organize a tour party to a practically new field for British Columbians. Her present plans call for leaving Victoria by the Aorangi, July 6, the return to Victoria being by the same ship, August 27. Ports of call will be Honolulu, Suva, Auckland and Sydney.

He will join President Quezon in New York, he stated, before leaving here. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss M. Montilla.

Freighter Aristo Goes Ashore
On Bermudan Reef

HAMILTON, Bermuda, March 15 (P).—The Ocean Dominion Line freighter Aristo ran ashore late today on the Northern Reef during a drizzle which reduced visibility to a few yards.

The vessel, leaking badly, apparently was well lodged on rocks between North Rock and the wreck of the Cristobal Colon, Spanish liner, which went aground last October.

The Aristo was carrying a general cargo between Halifax, Bermuda and the West Indies.

FIRST TIME
IN HISTORYWest Indies Steamship Lines
Show Surplus for 1936
Operations

OTTAWA, March 15 (P).—Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships Limited was able to show a surplus after bond interest on 1936 operations for the first time in its history.

The report was tabled today in the House of Commons by Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Transport, to whom it was submitted by President S. J. Hungerford on behalf of the directors.

After paying bond interest there was an income surplus of $87,396 to be paid the Government, compared with an income deficit of $269,969 which had to be provided by the Government in 1935.

Gross operating revenues for the year amounted to $4,322,592 against $3,816,245 in 1935, an increase of $506,347. Operating expenses for the year were $3,765,194 compared with $3,616,214 in 1935, an increase of $148,980. The increase in operating expenses was only 4.12 per cent while the increase in revenue was 13.27 per cent.

HANDLING EXPENSES

The increased expenses was occasioned principally by the handling expenses of the additional tonnage, the report said. Operating profit for the year was $557,398 against $200,090 in the previous year, an increase of $357,308. Accounts of the steamship company are kept apart from the Canadian National Railways.

The number of completed voyages was 128, two less than in the preceding year. Passenger travel was stated to be exceptionally good, all vessels being booked the greater part of the year. Passenger revenues increased $131,900. Freight revenues increased by $349,606. There was a notable increase in banana shipments to Canada.

The report of the final year of operation of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine also submitted to Mr. Howe by the president showed gross revenues for 1936 of $2,216,441 against $2,764,549 for 1935, a decrease of $548,108 and a total of $1,912,936 operating expenses against $2,452,726 in the previous year, a decrease of $539,790. Operating profit was $303,505 against $311,822 for 1935, a decrease of $8,317.

FEWER VOYAGES

The report said that in connection with the decreases in revenue and profit it should be remembered that there were only seventeen completed voyages to Australian and New Zealand ports during the year as against twenty-four in 1935.

The operating ratio was reduced to 86.30 compared with 88.72 in the previous year.

Under authority of an order-in-council, approved April 27, 1936, the vessels of the fleet were sold to the Montreal-Australia-New Zealand Line, Limited, which will continue the services formerly operated by the Canadian Government Merchant Marine.

"In winding up the affairs of the company," the report concluded, "adequate provision has been made for pensions to those entitled thereto."

ALWAYS GOOD ADVICE

"Where are some good places to stop on this trip?" asked the prospective automobile tourist.
"At the railroad crossings," replied the clerk in the touring bureau.

PRAISED FOR
RESCUE WORKPassengers Removed From Burning Ship in Smoothly-Executed Manner

HONOLULU, March 15 (P).—A smoothly - executed rescue was praised today while eight passengers from the fire-swept British freighter Silverlarch planned to continue their interrupted round-the-world voyage.

The Silverlarch was due here today under convoy of four destroyers. The voyagers, including two elderly persons, were taken aboard a launch from the United States cruiser Louisville Saturday when fire in the No. 3 hold of the freighter broke out for the third time and led Captain F. H. Henderson to ask for immediate assistance.

The destroyer, 350 miles away, reached the freighter in approximately twelve hours. Forty minutes after arriving beside the wallowing Silverlarch, the Louisville was on its way back to Honolulu, Captain W. S. Farber declared.

NO EXCITEMENT

Despite the heavy sea and the perilous descent down a Jacob's ladder to the bobbing navy launch, the passengers refused to become excited over their rescue. They were even embarrassed when, as the Louisville berthed at Pearl Harbor, 600 sailors stood at attention and a crowd of one hundred on the pier cheered.

The rescue party's feelings were summed up by Mrs. Michael Weller, Stroudsburg, Pa., who said "I wasn't sick and wasn't the least frightened," in referring to her experience in descending the spray-whipped ladder and crossing the 400 yards of pitching ocean between the two boats.

THREE WOMEN WERE BURNED

HALIFAX, March 15 (P).—Three women were taken to hospital yesterday after an explosion and fire aboard the motorboat Thor II, carrying visitors to the German training ship Schlesien anchored in Halifax harbor.

The three, Mrs. Blanche Brackett, Cecilia Cahill and Dorothy Conrod, received second-degree burns. At least a dozen others were believed to have suffered slight burns or shock.

THROWN INTO PANIC

First reports said there were about sixty persons on the motorboat. Just as the ship reached the side of the German warship there was a muffled explosion and flashes shot from the wheelhouse.

Instantly the crowd was thrown into a panic. Nearby craft rushed to the side of the burning boat. German sailors ran down the gangway to assist.

Some persons said about a score of the passengers on the Thor jumped into the water. Others said only three or four actually leaped.

HURRIED TO SHORE

Several had their hair and eyebrows singed, but were not actually burned. The three women were hurried to shore and an ambulance rushed them to hospital.

The Schlesien arrived here last Tuesday for a week's stay. Cause of the explosion was not immediately known.

The fire was extinguished after it had burned the rear of the wheelhouse and along the deck a few feet long. The Thor is about thirty-five feet long.

Maroons and Wings Win Hockey Games Over the Week-End

Montreal Squad Stages Great Rally to Come From Behind to Beat Americans, 6-4—Detroit Captures 2-1 Decision From Boston Bruins

By A. E. FULFORD
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Ten games are still to be played in the National Hockey League, but the line-up for the play-offs can be worked out now with very little chance it will be changed before the schedule ends next Sunday.

Montreal Canadiens settled the last doubt in the American Section when they defeated New York Rangers, 1-0, in Montreal on Saturday night. Detroit Red Wings had already won first place and Rangers' defeat left them without a chance of taking the runner-up spot from Boston Bruins.

So it is altogether likely Canadians will meet Red Wings for the N.H.L. crown, and that Boston and Montreal Maroons and Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs will fight out in the first round of the Stanley Cup play-offs.

There are still some doubts about the final line-up in the Canadian Section, but they are small ones that may disappear Tuesday.

Habitants need one more point to be sure of first place and there is still an outside chance Leafs will overhaul Maroons, now in the second spot.

Leafs didn't look like a team battling for that second place when they met Chicago Black Hawks in Toronto on Saturday night. They played listless hockey, against which Hawks' young American rookies looked good. Leafs won, 3-2.

SCORE VICTORIES
Maroons came from behind Sunday night to score a 6-4 victory over Americans at New York. Americans played with only six subs, due to the illness of Tommy Anderson, Art Chapman and Al Murray. Detroit rounded out the week-end programme by taking a 2-1 decision from Boston in Detroit.

The Klingbell was the pick of the five American youngsters Chicago used at Toronto. The tall defence-man scored a goal, started several nice plays and performed effectively on defence. Leafs were decidedly off form.

Sylvanus Apps, Jimmy Fowler and Davidson scored for Toronto, while Pep Kelly got one Chicago goal and was with Klingbell on his mark.

The only goal of the Ranger-Canadien game was a disputed one. Johnny Gagnon jabbed at the puck while Netminder Dave Kerr was on the ice and the goal judge ruled it had gone in. Rangers protested, Kerr claiming he had held it out with his elbow.

Johnny Gallagher and Marty Barry scored two goals for Detroit in the first period against Boston and the Wings protected their lead carefully. The only Boston goal came from Charlie Sands' stick in the second.

MAROONS RALLY
A four-goal outburst in the third period won Maroons the game with Americans. The New Yorkers were leading, 4-2, when Paul Runge scored. Baldy Northcott drove in two and Dave Trotter got one.

Trotter also scored in the second and Jerry Shannon got the first Maroon goal in the first.

Sweeney Schirner, Joe Jerwa, Nels Stewart and Eddie Wiseman were the Americans' scorers.

In the men's open doubles J. Jackson and W. F. Bridge won from R. Wood and C. Fairall by a score of 26-14. The veterans A. McMillan and George Cruickshank had an easy win over Roger and Hall, of Esquimalt, 25-19. Manson and Keating won a hard fought match from Kirchin and Mansell on the last end, scoring five shots, the final score being 22-19.

Draw for Wednesday:
CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLES
7:00 p.m.—L. Cockerill vs. F. Bendall; R. Wood vs. J. Jackson; A. Mansell vs. F. Thackray; C. Fairall vs. A. McBeath.

REDBIRDS DEFEAT THISTLES, 28-16

Retain Kiwanis Cup With Fine Victory Over Willows Women Bowlers—Other Results

The annual tournament of the Capital City and District Carpet Bowling League got under way at the Foresters' Hall last evening. The play-off for the Kiwanis Cup resulted in a win for the Esquimalt Redbirds (Mrs. A. Stewart skip), the holders of the trophy, over the Willows Thistles (Mrs. J. McMillan skip), with a score of 28-16.

Peden and Audy Riding in Bike Race in Chicago

CHICAGO, March 15.—The colorful Victoria-Montreal team of Torchy Peden and Jules Audy was reunited tonight when Chicago's thirty-seventh, international six-day bicycle race opened before 12,000 spectators at the Chicago Stadium. Eleven and a half teams started instead of the scheduled twelve.

Mickey Rodak, Chicago, failed to show up, and his partner, Hank Sima, started the long grind alone. Sima rode for a half hour, then retired temporarily and started hunting for a partner. Officials said it was the first time in their memory in which only one rider started a six-day event.

Canadian Scottish To Meet Wanderers In Play-Off Match

TIED for second place with one point apiece in the second half of the Barnard Cup series, Navy and J.B.A.A. ruggers will clash Saturday afternoon at Macdonald Park. Alan LeMarquand will referee. On the lower ground at the enclosure Oak Bay Wanderers and Canadian Scottish intermediate fifteens will meet in a play-off fixture for the second half championship of the Heyland Cup series. Victory for the Oak Bay boys will give them the trophy, while a victory for the militiamen will force a championship play-off for the silverware. K. Symons will officiate. Kick-offs are set for 3 o'clock.

MASSY GAINS FIGHT HONORS

Defeats Field in Light-Heavyweight Final at University School Display

D. H. Massy, weighing seven pounds less than his opponent, captured the light-heavyweight championship of the University School last night at the Mount Talmie gymnasium by punching his way to a fine victory over J. Field after an interesting fight. Massy, along with Escobar, who fought the bantamweight final from Jones, were voted the most scientific boxers at the institution.

Complete results of the ten bouts follow: duntweight, Young I won from Norman; paperweight, Clarke won from North; bantamweight, Escobar won from Jones; flyweight, Coe and Usher fought to a draw; lightweight, Jeanneret won from Gagnon; featherweight, Jones won from Taylor; welterweight, Darling won from Ireland; middleweight, Everett won from Dark; light-heavyweight, Massy won from Field.

ADDRESSES GUESTS
Following the last bout, G. H. Scarrett, B.A. headmaster at the school, addressed the guests, which numbered around 125, and expressed thanks to officials and spectators for showing such a great interest in the school. He spoke briefly on the great value of boxing.

Al McKinnon, instructor, refereed all the bouts, while Reg Wenman acted as timekeeper. Lieut.-Commander Wurtele, John Grant and Frank Skillings acted as judges.

J.B.A.A. ruggers will hold a workout tonight at Macdonald Park at 6:30 o'clock. All players are requested to attend.

Enrico Venturi Reels

Putting all he's got into a perfectly timed straight right to the jaw, Pedro Montanez sends Enrico Venturi reeling across the ring at Madison Square Garden, New York, during their fifteen-round battle. The game Venturi absorbed a terrific shellacking from his foe, but finished the fight on his feet. Montanez took the decision with a good margin.

Sunderland Takes Cup Replay Match Without Trouble

SHEFFIELD, England, March 15.—Sunderland, League champion last year, walloped Wolverhampton Wanderers 4-0 in the second replay of their sixth-round English Soccer Cup tie on the Wednesday's ground here today. The Roker Park club now meets Millwall in the semi-final at Huddersfield.

The two teams clashed first at Wolverhampton, the game ending in a 1-1 deadlock. They split four goals after extra time at Sunderland in the first replay.

West Bromwich Albion, surprise winner over the highly touted Arsenal in the sixth round, will play Preston North End in London in the other semi-final April 30.

TOMMY FARR TAKES CROWN

Defeats Ben Ford to Win British Empire Heavyweight Fight Honors

LONDON, March 15.—Tommy Farr, clever, cool-headed Welshman, outboxed Ben Ford, wild-swinging South African, in a slow fifteen-round bout at Harringay tonight and won the British Empire heavyweight championship.

With the victory went the right for Farr to battle Max Baer, former world's heavyweight champion, here April 15, in the second of a series of elimination bouts leading to a match for the ultimate survivor with Joe Louis, of Detroit.

Farr clearly outpointed Ford, whose face was a bloody mess at the finish. The South African could do little with Farr's defence. Once Ford swung a haymaker right, missed completely, spun around like a top and sat down on his haunches while Farr stood grinning delightedly.

Farr himself sat down for a count of one in the first round after Ford tapped him on the jaw.

The crowd booed Ford. The peppy Welshman kept out of Ford's way—which apparently was easy to do—and kept jabbing at Ford's masked nose.

Baer, who has turned out to be a great favorite with London crowds, beamed contentedly from the ringside. He got a great hand when he was introduced from the ring.

With a number of former champions entered, play in the city amateur billiards championships will get under way this week. Smaller than in previous years, the entry list is select and includes the names of such cue experts as Sam Oakes, Percy Fitzsimmons, Tommy Dunlop, Art McKittick, "Tots" Plump, F. Bowley Turner, Ed Newman and Evan Edwards.

The city snooker championship will be conducted in conjunction with the billiard meet and first rounds in each competition must be completed by March 25.

The draw follows:
BILLIARDS
J. Beasley vs. T. Dunlop; J. Noble vs. W. Long; R. Dunnett vs. W. Crowther; A. McNeill vs. C. London; S. Oakes vs. J. Curtis; E. Newman vs. P. Rawnsley; A. McKittick vs. E. Edwards; B. Byes; T. Plump; C. Bridges; C. Irish; H. Burns; P. L. Elliott; P. A. Fitzsimmons; F. B. Turner; A. J. Paddon and J. Raiton.

SNOKER
C. Milton vs. J. E. Raiton; T. Woods vs. J. E. Grimond; W. Spavin vs. C. Irish; J. Beasley vs. E. Newman; B. Byes; Bishop, Fitzsimmons, Clayton and A. E. Woods.

All fixtures will be played at the Metropolitan Billiards Parlors, Yates Street.

DOMINION LIFE TEAM BEATS WHIZZ BANGS

First division champions of the Victoria Table Tennis League, Dominion Life Assurance "ping pongers" last night trounced the Whizz Bangs, second division titleholders, 16-0, in a play-off fixture for the Victoria and District Table Tennis League championship.

The victory gave the Dominion Life team possession of the challenge trophy for the next twelve months.

Scores follow:
Dominion Life—A. Lynch (4), V. Tully (4), F. Harding (4) and W. Morrison (4).

Whizz Bangs—T. Harris (6), McKenzie (6), O. Bentley (6), and Taylor (6).

DETROIT MARKSMEN AND TORONTO STAR SHARE FIRST PLACE

Three Scorers Blanketed at Top of Parade as Teams Swing Into Last Week of Play—Aurie's Injuries Place Him Out for Season—Schirner and Jackson Crowding Joint Leaders

MONTREAL, March 15.—Three scorers are blanketed at the head of the parade, according to official National Hockey League statistics, as the league swings into the last week of its schedule.

The big three, with forty-three points apiece, are rookie Syl Apps, of Toronto Maple Leafs; Larry Gaudin, of Detroit Red Wings, now out for the season with a broken ankle, and his linemate, Marty Barry. Apps and Barry overtook Aurie during the week.

The league figures indicate a "mystery" assist for Barry somewhere along the line, for newspaper tabulation gives him only seventeen goals and twenty-five assists, whereas the official statistics credit him with twenty-six assists. On the other hand, Bob Gracie, of Montreal Maroons, figured at thirty-two points in newspaper count, is given only thirty-one by the league.

SCHIRNER NEXT
Behind the first three comes Sweeney Schirner, of the New York Americans, with forty points, followed by Harvey Jackson, of the Leafs, a notch behind.

Aurie's twenty-three goals make him the leading sniper, though Butch Keeling, of the New York Rangers, with twenty-two, heads the now active players in this branch. Apps is still top man in assists, his twenty-eight putting him two up on Barry.

The dubious honor of chief bad-man goes again to Red Horner, of the Leafs. His 118 minutes of penalties are twenty-four ahead of Allan Shields, of the Boston Bruins.

Two Island Cage Games Billed for Tomorrow Evening

TWO more Vancouver Island basketball championship games will be played tomorrow evening at the High School gymnasium. Nanaimo Redettes will clash with Bob Whyte's Burnetts in the final game of the girls' senior "B" series and will enter the tussle with a one-point lead obtained last week in the Coal City, while Bob Dymond's Metropolitans will take the floor in the second game against Duncan in the junior boys' final.

An exhibition game, which will be arranged today, will round the programme. The opening game is booked to start at 7 o'clock.

Odds on Golden Miller Are Lengthened to 9-1

Dorothy Paget's Horse Still Favored to Win at Aintree on Friday—Royal Mail and Ego Second Choices—Lincolnshire Set Tomorrow

LONDON, March 15.—Odds on Golden Miller, Miss Dorothy Paget's favorite for the Grand National, lengthened slightly in today's call-over at the Victoria Club. The ten-year-old gelding, winner in 1934, was backed at 9 to 1, against 100 to 12 in the previous callover.

Joint second favorites for Friday's race were Lloyd Thomas' Royal Mail and Sir David Llewellyn's Ego at 100 to 9, followed by Didoric and Pucka Bella at 100 to 7, Dea-chance at 100 to 6, Don Bradman at 18 to 1, Mideenear at 11, Pen-crack and Detanage at 25 to 1, and Ready Cash at 33 to 1.

G. Beeby, trainer of Vivian Smith's Ready Cash, said the horse's leg was improving and that a decision as to whether he will run will probably be made Wednesday, formerly favorite, Ready Cash fell sharply in the betting when it was announced he had suffered a training injury.

THE LINCOLNSHIRE

W. Joel's Take Me was coupled with Major J. S. Courtland's Montanaro as joint favorite for the Lincolnshire, which will inaugurate the new flat racing season Wednesday. They were backed at 21 to 2. Other Lincolnshire odds: Laureat II 15 to 1, Nip Away 18 to 1, Edgell and Incketh 20 to 1; Scotch Trout, Prickett, Straight Deal, Marmaduke Jinks and Voltus 25 to 1; Kludo, Zelms and Boston West 28 to 1; Lost Scent, Fair Play and Over Coat 33 to 1, and Liscloon 40 to 1.

Lord Astor's Early School was scratched from the Derby at 9 a.m. on account of leg trouble. Lord Astor is still represented in the three-year-old field by Pot Boiler and Cash Book, but Early School's scratching will lower his owner's hopes of winning the blue riband event for the first time.

Leaves Will Not Be in Line-Up

PUTNEY-ON-THAMES, March 15.—J. S. Lewes, president of the Oxford crew training for the Oxford-Cambridge boat race on March 24, announced tonight he definitely would not row with the Dark Blues and that the present line-up would stand.

Lewes last Thursday was replaced at No. 2 by D. M. de R. Winsor, last year's stroke. This was to give the boat better balance. A few days previously R. R. Stewart replaced D. R. B. Myrns at No. 3.

The Oxford line-up is now: G. C. Ashby, bow; Winsor, Stewart, R. G. Rowe, J. P. Borrough, J. D. Sturrock, J. C. Cherry; A. B. Hodgson, stroke; G. J. P. Merfield, cox.

Hart Massey, diminutive Canadian, was replaced by Merfield as cox soon after the Dark Blues came to the Thames to complete their training.

ANNUAL BANQUET CARDED TONIGHT

GEORGE ARLISS SHOWING TODAY

Veteran Actor Comes to Dominion Screen in "Man of Affairs," With Rene Ray

"Man of Affairs," the zestful and swift-action comedy-drama which was brilliantly adapted from Neil Grant's stage play, "The Nelson Touch," brings George Arliss to the screen of the Dominion Theatre, today.

The film is further adorned by the adroit directorial talents of Herbert Mason, and the sprightly and sophisticated screenplay of L. du Garde Peach. Rene Ray, the popular and attractive blonde, partnered with handsome Romilly Runge, contribute top-notch performances as a pair of sweethearts who are always in and out of the proverbial frying-pan.

ATLAS Anita Louise, charming Warner Bros film star, portrays the part of George O'Brien's daughter in "The Story of Louis Pasteur," currently at the Atlas Theatre with Paul Muni in the stellar role.

CAPITOL "God's Country and the Woman," which was screened almost wholly in the big woods district, is said to be the last word in natural color photography. With its great cast headed by George Brent and Beverly Roberts, this film masterpiece is showing currently at the Capitol Theatre.

COLUMBIA Heather Angel is the chief-romantic-support of George O'Brien in "The Skin Game," currently at the Columbia Theatre. This young star adds a touch of beauty and patrician quality to the rough frontier scenes of this romantic adventure film epic.

OAK BAY In "Park Avenue Theatre" released by RKO Radio and currently at the Oak Bay Theatre, the star, George O'Brien, forsakes the New York skyscrapers for the big-timber district of Northern California, Oregon and Washington. The film is based on a popular magazine story of the same title, by Bruce Hutchinson.

PLAZA "The Amateur Gentleman," Jeffery Farnoff's world-famous romance of one of fiction's favorite adventures, is currently at the Plaza Theatre with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. in the title role and Elissa Landi as his co-star. Other prominent in the cast are Gordon Harker, Basil Sydney and Hugh Williams.

OPERA COMPANY WILL PLAY HERE TWO DAYS

organization will be heard in three operas: Friday evening, March 26, "Madame Butterfly" with Mmes. Koyke, Angelus, Homer, Messers. Onofrei, Valle, Cervi and Curci.

"Martha," the Saturday matinee, March 27, will be sung in English, and the tuncful opera by Von Flotow will be followed by a one-act ballet "Viennese Life" by the San Carlo Ballet. The cast: Mmes. Meusel and Bruno; Messrs. Gerard, Kozakovich, Curci and Cervi.

"Il Trovatore" is the final opera on Saturday night, March 27, with Mmes. Saroya, Angelus and Falco; Messrs. Lindi, Thomas, Kravitt, Murel, and the San Carlo Opera Ballet in the incidental dances of the opera.

Mr. Peroni will be the conductor.

WILL OFFER LITTLE THEATRE PRODUCTION

The Victoria Little Theatre Association will present John Galsworthy's three-act play "The Skin Game" on Thursday, March 18, at the Empire Theatre.

The cast is the same as was the Dominion Drama Festival competition with Act 1 of "The Skin Game." In respect to the cast, this play is unique in that it contains three drama-festival winners of awards for acting. Fred Spencer, who plays the part of "Hornblower," won this year the prize for the best male actor in the festival; Miss Anne Bretton, who plays the part of "Jill," won the award for the best actress last year; Fraser Lister, who will portray "Dawker," was the winner of the festival two years ago. The three "stars" are supported by a cast whose ability was commented upon by the festival adjudicator.

MANY PIONEERS ATTEND MEETING

Grand Factor Addresses Native Sons of British Columbia on Sir James Douglas

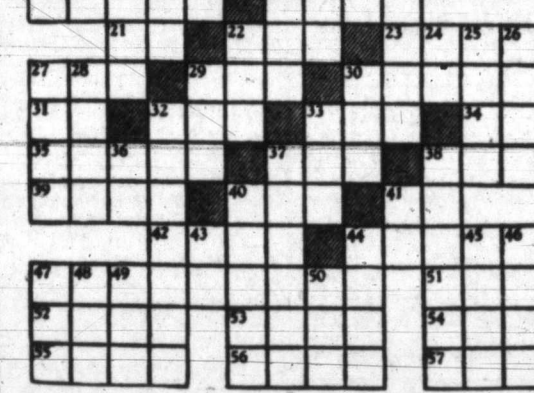

B. A. McKelvie, grand factor of the Native Sons of British Columbia, was the speaker at last evening's meeting of the Victoria Post, which had as its special guests pioneer members of the organization. Mr. McKelvie delighted the gathering of eighty members with his address on "Sir James Douglas."

Frank Higgins, K.C., the first vice-factor of the local post, was the guest of honor, in the absence of J. Stuart Yates, the first factor. J. Flewinn, who was born in Victoria in 1857, was the oldest native son present. W. J. V. Church, chief factor, presided.

J. E. Wilson read the minutes of the first regular meeting, which was held on March 29, 1890, and Mr. Higgins commented on them briefly. Charter members in attendance who were present at this meeting in addition to Mr. Higgins and Mr. Wilson, were: Lindley Crease, K.C.; C. C. Pemberton, Walter Engelhardt, W. F. Adams, G. A. Gardiner, W. Duck and James Bland.

Several guitar selections were contributed by Master Donald Simpson and the evening was concluded with refreshments.
